

ROUNDUP

20 in the opening round before losing to Joseph 3-1 in the district championship game. Helix fell to Joseph 3-1 (25-11, 18-25, 10-25, 22-25) but then turned around and beat Powder Valley 3-1 (25-20, 25-15, 23-25, 25-20) to finish in third place. The Badgers had swept the season series with both the Cougars and Grizzlies by a combined 12-4 score.

Helix's Wilson and Charmayne Bennett and Echo's Monique Montoya were also selected to the all-tournament team afterwards.

Echo will host Jordan Valley on Wednesday at 5:30 p.m. in a first round meeting.

Heppner stopped by Culver at CBC tourney

The Culver Bulldogs continued their dominance and swept Heppner on Saturday to claim the Class 2A Columbia Basin Conference district title.

To set up the meeting with Culver, Heppner had to go through tournament-host Pilot Rock as the Rockets defeated the defending state champion Weston-McEwen TigerScots one round earlier. In the Mustangs match against Pilot Rock, they held on to sweep the Rockets 25-21, 28-26, 25-22. Heppner had help from a big defensive performance by freshman Sydney Wilson, who finished with 26 digs.

"We had to battle for each and every point," head coach Mindy Wilson said. "We didn't serve well, missing 15 serves, and that does not help when trying to gain momentum. But by supporting each other. We dug deep and got the win."

The momentum the Mustangs eventually gained was not enough to top the Bulldogs. Culver kept Heppner at bay for the first two sets, winning each 25-15 and 25-16. Heppner made things a little tougher in the third set, but the Bulldogs pulled away to win 25-21.

"We came out after our win against Pilot Rock and just couldn't get going," Wilson said. "You have to be on your game against a team like Culver. They were just the better team tonight."

This isn't the end for the Mustangs, as both Heppner and Culver will advance to the 2A state tournament with play-in games Saturday.

Bulldogs faced league's No. 1 team as they fight for playoff berth

Last Tuesday night, the Hermiston boys soccer team was essentially playing for the league championship. The Bulldogs welcomed the No. 1 Hood River Valley Eagles to Kennison Field and battled for the full 80 minutes. The final score was a testament to Hermiston's ability to play sound ball and Hood River's skillfulness. The 1-1 draw gave the Eagles the top spot in the league, while leaving the Bulldogs (7-3-3, 2-0-3) fighting for a play-in game. Hermiston's regular season finale will be Tuesday against Pendleton. The outcome of Hermiston's home finale was past print deadline.

At Hood River, the Hermiston girls soccer team's goal-scoring issues continued as the Bulldogs were shut out for the eighth game this season with a 1-0 loss to Hood River Valley.

Hermiston (5-6-2 overall, 2-1-2 CRC) finishes up the regular season Tuesday at home against Pendleton. The outcome of Hermiston's home finale was also past print deadline.

Riverside boys, girls stay undefeated with shutouts

At Nyssa, the No. 1-ranked Riverside Pirates boys soccer team remained unbeaten on the season with an 11-0 victory over Nyssa on Saturday, the seventh shutout victory of the season for the Pirates.

Riverside (12-0 overall, 5-0 Eastern Oregon League) will finish up league play on Friday with a home game against Irrigon at 4 p.m.

Also on the road, the Riverside Pirates girls team kept their undefeated league record intact by edging out the Nyssa Bulldogs for a 1-0 victory on Saturday.

Riverside (7-2-2 overall, 4-0-1 Eastern Oregon League) ends the regular season on Friday at home against Irrigon.

Umatilla wins a narrow pair against Irrigon

The Umatilla Vikings boys soccer team snapped a four game losing streak with a shutout victory over the Knights in Irrigon on Saturday.

Umatilla (2-9-1 overall, 2-3 Eastern Oregon League) will wrap up the regular season on Friday at home against Nyssa at 3:30 p.m. Irrigon (0-12, 0-5) will host Trout Lake (WA) Wednesday at 4 p.m.

On the girls' side, the Vikings notched their first win since Sept. 29 with a 3-0 shutout of Irrigon on Saturday afternoon.

Umatilla (3-7-3 overall, 2-1-2 Eastern Oregon League) next hosts Nyssa on Friday at 5 p.m. Irrigon (2-9-1, 0-5) travels to Riverside on Friday at 4 p.m.
