Hermiston police to expand Facebook presence

HERMISTON HERALD

Hermiston residents can expect to see more Facebook posts from their police department.

Chief Jason Edmiston said starting Jan. 2 the Hermiston Police Department's three on-call supervisors — Captain Scott Clark, Captain Travis Eynon and Lieutenant Randy Studebaker — will be responsible for one social media post per day for each week they are on call.

The posts might be about an arrest, a crime prevention tip, a weather advisory or something else to further public safety and awareness related to the department's activities.

"We will respect constitutional rights and try to ensure we honor our criminal justice system where a person is innocent until proven guilty by using words such as 'alleged' or 'suspected' but our goal will be to remain factual," Edmiston wrote in a news release. "We will honor the First Amendment which gives a citizen the right to agree with something we have posted or disagree. We will likely not engage in discussions further than the original post unless the engagement is to clarify or assist."

Many police departments have used social media in recent years to put a friendly face on the department or provide warnings of crime trends. Edmiston said a concerned citizen contacted him recently about the comments made under a Facebook post about a Hermiston woman's arrest, but Edmiston said the law limits government entities from "picking and choosing who has the ability to comment on their site and how they comment." He said he hopes as the department expands its social media presence that the majority of comments will remain positive. To see posts from the department, visit www.facebook.com/hermistonpolice.

Man shot, alleges he was kidnapped

Police believe a man was kidnapped and shot Thursday in rural Morrow County.

The 48-year-old man from Eugene was discovered about 7:30 a.m. in a vehicle at Love's Truck Stop, west of Boardman. He was suffering from a single gunshot wound and was transported to Good Shepherd Medical Center, Hermiston, for treatment.

According to Oregon State Police, a preliminary investigation revealed the victim was shot at another location and transported to Love's by a citizen who was waved down by the victim on Interstate 84 near milepost 151.

The victim alleges to have been kidnapped and dropped off near that area, by abductors in a maroon van who fled the scene in an unknown direction. According to police, there is no evidence at this time indicating there is a threat to the general public regarding this incident.

Anyone who may have witnessed any suspicious circumstances or observed the victim and suspect vehicle on Interstate 84 near milepost 151 Thursday morning are asked to call the Oregon State Police Southern Command Dispatch Center at 1-541-664-4600 and reference case number SP17461025.

Woman walks out of salon, restaurant without paying

HERMISTON HERALD

Hermiston Police arrested a local woman for theft of services at two local businesses on Wednesday, Dec. 20.

Officers arrested Lynzee Crane, 20, for negatively impacting two local businesses. According to a press release, Crane went into the Styling Arena on Hermiston Avenue to get her hair colored, and then said she needed to retrieve money from her vehicle to pay for the $100 service. Crane then went outside and did not return. Shortly after, Hermiston Police were called by Stockman's Steakhouse on North First Street. Employees said Crane had left the restaurant without paying for $53 worth of food. She used a story similar to the one at the salon and fled. Officers found Crane at a residence in Umatilla, charged her with two counts of theft, and lodged her in the Umatilla County Jail. Crane had charges from earlier this year for identity theft and fraudulent use of a credit card.
