HERMISTON HERALD

osh Burns and his partner, Chloe Elstone, won the Dancing with the Hermiston Stars competition Saturday at Hermiston High School. Five Hermiston competition batalouy at Hermiston Figh School, Cameron Bendixsen and Tricia Mooney — paired up with professionals from the Utah Ballroom Dance Company and raised money for the Desert Arts Council. Ashley Seibel was slated to perform but had to cancel due to illness.

The money raised through ticket sales and extra donations will help support Desert Arts Council's mission of growing the arts in Hermiston. Ticket sales totaled $6,177 for the night. Burns, the general manager at the Walmart distribution center and chair of the Greater Hermiston Area Chamber of Commerce board, won from a combination of the judge's scores, audience votes and money raised.
