

OBITUARIES

Marlene Ann Winchester

Irrigon
October 10, 1931 - February 1, 2018

Marlene Ann Winchester of Irrigon was born October 10, 1931, in Sulphur Springs, Arkansas, the daughter of Baxter and Lorene (Gailey) Mills. She passed away in Hermiston on Thursday, February 1, 2018, at the age of 86.

Marlene lived in Sulphur Springs throughout her childhood where she attended school and graduated from high school.

She married Harold D. Winchester on December 23, 1950, in Gravette, Arkansas.

In 1956, the couple moved to Nyssa, Ore., where they resided until 2000. They moved to Irrigon in 2000 to be closer to their family.

Marlene enjoyed gardening, growing flowers and doing crafts. She enjoyed volunteering at the Nyssa School District where she would read stories to the children. She attended Columbia View Community Church in Irrigon.

She was preceded in death by a daughter, Carolyn Schilling; a son, Gary Winchester; a brother, Buddy Mills; and a sister, Marilyn Mills.

She is survived by her husband of 67 years, Harold; brother Joe Mills; grandchildren Marc Schilling, Lori Smith and Matt Schilling; and three great-grandchildren.

A memorial service will be 1:00 p.m. Saturday, February 10, 2018, at Columbia View Community Church, 1230 Highway 730, Irrigon, OR 97844.

Family suggests memorial donations in Marlene's memory to the Columbia View Community Church.

Patricia Susan (Feehly) Brown

Irrigon
March 13, 1954 - February 2, 2018

Patricia Susan (Feehly) Brown, 63, of Irrigon passed away surrounded by her loving family and friends on February 2, 2018. She was born on March 13, 1954, to L. Wayne Feehly Sr. and Betty Magaw Feehly in Wilmington, Del.

She was raised in Elkton, Md., and graduated from Elkton High School in 1972. Her heart's desire was to be a wife and mother. She met the love of her life, Martin L. Brown Jr., in 1972 and they were married on January 27, 1973.

In 1979 they moved to Oregon. They lived in Boardman for a short time before settling in Irrigon. She worked at Lamb Weston for many years before moving to Florida.

In Naples, Patty started working for a local school district as a food service worker. She loved working with the students and seeing their smiling faces.

She enjoyed going to the beach after work, swimming and sitting in the warm sun. Patty loved the ocean and being outdoors. A favorite hobby of Patty's was going shopping with her friends and family.

In 2004, they moved back to Irrigon to be closer to their grandchildren. Patty continued to work as an assistant cook at Riverside High School and later as a head cook at Windy River Elementary. She truly loved working with children.

Patty was a 38-year member of Irrigon Assembly of God (now Family Worship Center). While living in Florida, she was a member of Golden Gate Assembly of God. Her accomplishments are many but her most treasured role other than that of wife and mother was serving her Savior. Patty volunteered in many areas of church including nursery worker, cafe worker, treasurer and youth group leader. She faithfully loved others for Jesus.

Patty was also a member of Christian Motorcycle Association. She loved to ride motorcycles with her husband and friends, sharing Jesus with others.

Her hobbies included hiking, boating, fishing, camping, spending time with family and working with FWC youth.

Survived by her husband of 45 years, Martin L. Brown Jr.; son Marty (Jennie); daughter Wendy (Jim); grandchildren Marty IV, Kyle, Cody, Ashley and Katelyn; father L. Wayne Feehly Sr.; brothers Lawrence Jr. (Myrtle) and Michael; sisters Peggy (Frank) Heverin and Colleen Norman (Joe); and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Patty was preceded in death by her mother: Betty Feehly.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to the following organizations: St. Jude's Children Research Hospital, Vange John Memorial Hospice, or the Family Worship Center Youth.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, February 10, 2018 at 11 a.m. at the Family Worship Center, Irrigon, Oregon. Burial will follow at Desert Lawn Memorial Cemetery, Irrigon, Oregon.

Leanne Mercer (Black) Gaunt

Echo
January 16, 1939 - February 1, 2018

Leanne Mercer (Black) Gaunt of Echo was born January 16, 1939, in Bozeman, Montana, the daughter of Darlene Rundlett and Edgar Black. She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother who went to be with her Lord with her husband and youngest daughter by her side on February 1, 2018, at the age of 79.

Leanne's family moved to Tacoma, Wash., when she was six years of age. She met her future husband Joseph Gorette in Tacoma and they were united in marriage on September 10, 1955. In the coming years, the couple were blessed with three daughters, Sueann, Sandy and Shari. After 25 years the marriage ended in divorce.

Leanne later met Jerry Gaunt and they were married on August 17, 1981, and they moved to Hermiston. In 1986, Leanne and Jerry purchased a small grocery store and ice business in Echo. In 1990, they moved to Echo where they have lived since.

She is survived by her husband, Jerry Gaunt of Echo; daughters Sueann and Sandy Gorette, both of Tacoma, Shari (Chris) Hyde of Hoquiam, Tammy (Jeff) Anderson of Gig Harbor and Peggy (Pat) Fere-day of Tacoma; one son, Jeff (Higinia) Gaunt of West Richland; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Leanne's family would like to thank Good Shepherd Hospice for the care and service they provided as well as to a friend and caregiver, Charlene Marcum, for her love, prayers and comfort that she gave to Leanne and her family.

A memorial service will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday, February 17 at the Echo Community Church, 21 N. Bonanza, Echo, OR 97826.

Memorial contributions can be made in Leanne's memory to Echo Community Church, 21 N. Bonanza, Echo, OR 97826.

Boardman man killed in I-84 single-vehicle crash

HERMISTON HERALD

A Boardman man died Monday night in a fiery single-vehicle crash on Interstate 84 near Hermiston.

Ever Moreno Lerma, 48, was driving eastbound on I84 at about 8:40 p.m., according to the Oregon State Police, when he rolled his 2004 Chevrolet Trailblazer near Milepost 181 between the Westland Road and Highway 207 exits.

When emergency crews arrived they found the vehicle engulfed in flames. Moreno Lerma had been ejected from the vehicle and died at the scene.

One lane of the freeway was closed for about three hours during the investigation. Speed is believed to have contributed to the crash, and Moreno Lerma was not wearing a seatbelt. It is not known why the vehicle left the roadway.
