

Bulldogs keep up winning ways on the tennis court

HERMISTON HERALD

HERMISTON — The Hermiston girls tennis team breezed to a 6-2 win over The Dalles on Thursday afternoon.

“Good tennis all around,” head coach Jason Sivey said. “Once again, I’m very proud of the whole team. Even the matches we lost were very hard-fought battles that could have gone either way.”

Sivey pointed out No. 1 doubles team of Reed Middleton and Breena Wadekamper as one of the best matches of the day, as they dominated The Dalles’ pairing for a 6-0, 6-1 victory. Sivey also liked No. 1 singles player Mackenzie Hill’s 6-1, 6-0 victory, saying she “came out with great intensity.”

On the road versus The Dalles, the Hermiston boys tennis team played a strong match and came home 5-3 winners Thursday. The Bulldogs were also coming off a 7-1 victory over the Bucks last Tuesday.

Hayden Cissna moved to No. 1 singles for the day and ground out a win. He dropped the first set 6-4, but battled to win the next set 6-1 and won a 10-4 tiebreaker.

“Super happy for Hayden and his big win,” head coach Shann West said. “Love to see kids feel good about how they’re performing. He won’t stop smiling.”

Also of note was No. 1 doubles pairing Thomas McCullough and Patrick Wicks, who won 7-5, 7-5 and played at a “high level” according to West.

Hermiston also finished up a previous match with The Dalles that was shortened due to weather, where Hermiston and The Dalles split 4-4. Jason Morris had the lone win in singles action, and the top three doubles teams of McCullough/Wicks, Matt Eckhardt/Austin Garcia, and Trent Pitney/Josue Cadenas all earned wins.
