Hermiston athlete Colby Lerten, 11, will take his golfing skills to Salem.

Lerten claimed first place at the Oregon Junior Golf Tournament at Wildhorse on Friday August 10 with a score of 44, and again in La Grande the next day with a score of 49.

Lerten has been playing golf since he was three years old.

"He's been swinging things like they were golf clubs ever since he could walk," said his father Kris.

Lerten will compete at the Charlotte's Tournament of Champions at the Creekside Golf Club in Salem on Saturday, September 8.

time of 4.7 seconds was not good enough to earn the team ropers from Dublin, Texas, a victory lap around Farm-City arena or a $100 nightly bonus and bottle of Chute 8 whiskey. However, it was good enough to clinch the team the overall title and a big payday.

Paired with a fast 4.4 seconds from the performance in Saturday afternoon slack, Ivy and Vick combined for an average of 9.1 seconds on two head to win the title. They had a 0.8 second cushion on second place teams Brenten Hall/Chase Tryan and Chad Masters/Joseph Harrison at 9.9 seconds. Hermiston's Jake Stanley and his partner Bucky Campbell finished sixth with a time of 10.8 on two.

Ivy and Vick earned a big $6,318 payday for the win, which boosted each in the world standings, as Ivy went from 34th to 26th and Vick went up 10 spots from 35th to 25th.
