

OBITUARIES

Earl Robert Perry

Pendleton
November 30, 1941 - August 27, 2018

Earl Robert Perry, of Pendleton, Oregon, was born to parents Louis M. and Katherine (Blackburn) Perry on November 30, 1941, in Newport, Washington. He died on August 27, 2018, in Richland, Washington, at the age of 76 years.

Perry

Earl was the seventh of eight children born at home, as was the custom in those days. Earl attended many different schools while growing up as his father followed work in construction of the dams, Hanford, etc. He graduated from Wenatchee, Washington, High School in 1960.

After graduating he and several of his friends joined the U.S. Navy to see the world. His time of service was from 1960-1964. After his tour of duty, he returned to the Pilot Rock/Pendleton area.

One of Earl's favorite jobs after he retired from Hill Meat Co. was driving bus for Mid Columbia Bus Company in Pendleton. He loved the children he had contact with each day and treated them with kindness as if each and every one was his own. A number of summers he drove firefighters from fire to fire. He would mention his "motorhome" had windows down both sides, etc., and then would say it was a school bus. This always made his sister's guard team and in parades. He enjoyed working in his yard, gardening and woodworking. Bud married Joyce Otis in Hermiston on June 9, 1976. He is survived by his wife of 42 years, Joyce of Hermiston; daughter Jeannine Hunt of Alaska; son John R. Wagner of California; daughter Trisha Hattery of Washington; stepsons Tom and Rene Barnes; 13 grandchildren; and 23 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; brothers Robert, James, David and Gerald; and sisters Barbara and Betty Ann.

Wagner

John "Bud" Wagner of Hermiston was born July 8, 1933, in Ione, Oregon, the son of John and Delia (Peebler) Wagner. He passed away in Hermiston on August 29, 2018, at the age of 85.

Bud attended grade school in Ione, middle school in The Dalles and graduated from Heppner High School in the class of 1951. He then attended Eastern Oregon University where he played football in the first East-West Shrine game. He then joined the USMC where he served for three years during the Korean War.

After his honorable discharge, Bud returned to La Grande, Oregon, where he began his career with the Union Pacific Railroad. He served as a brakeman and later as a conductor for the railroad for 38.5 years, retiring in 1996. In 1974, he moved to Hermiston where he has resided since.

Bud was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Hermiston. He was a life member of the VFW Post #4750 and the American Legion Post #37 in Hermiston, where he was active on their honor and she and Jim traveled to every state as well as parts of Canada and Mexico.

Eva is survived by her daughter Linda and husband Chet Bohannon, Camby, Ind.; son Larry Frost and his wife Debra, Maricopa, Ariz.; grandsons Chester Bohannon, Camby, Ind., Stacy Frost, Vancouver, Wash., and Seth Frost, Grants Pass, Ore.; and nine great-grandchildren. Eva was the last of her generation on both sides of the family.

She was preceded in death by an infant son, Rodney LeRoy; her parents; two sisters; and husband Jim. Funeral service will be held on Saturday, September 8, 2018, at 11 a.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 850 S.W. 11th St., Hermiston, Ore. Family will receive friends from 9 to 10:45 a.m. prior to the service. Burial will follow at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Boy Scouts of America, Troop 854 c/o First Christian Church, 775 W. Highland Ave., Hermiston, OR 97838 or the Missionary Program of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Laurel H. 'Bud' Wilson

Heppner
February 17, 1930 - August 29, 2018

Laurel H. "Bud" Wilson of Heppner, Oregon, was born on February 17, 1930, in Centralia, Washington, to parents Edwin and Doris Butler Wilson. He died on August 29, 2018, in Heppner, Oregon, at the age of 88 years.

Wilson

Bud graduated from Dayville High School in Dayville, Oregon. He was united in marriage to Delores F. Baker on September 9, 1952, in Lewiston, Idaho. Bud worked as a mechanic/welder for Dennis Logan for many years. They lived in Lexington, Boardman and Hermiston.

Bud returned to his roots in Heppner and has lived at Willow Creek Terrace for many years, where he really enjoyed the residents and staff. He enjoyed the mountains, hunting, riding 4-wheelers, reading and playing bingo. Bud loved spending time with his family and especially enjoyed watching his great-grandchildren's sporting events: "Go Mustangs."

He is survived by his sons Danny Wilson and wife Melanie, and Donny Wilson and wife April, both of Heppner, Ore.; daughter Carmen Wilson, Lexington, Ore.; brothers Wayne Wilson and Tracy Wilson, both of Lexington, Ore.; and numerous grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins. Bud was preceded in death by his wife Delores in 2008 and his parents.

A graveside service will be held on Friday, September 7, 2018, at 11 a.m. at the Lexington Cemetery, Lexington, Oregon.

Those who wish may make contributions on Bud's memory to Willow Creek Terrace.

Beth L. Picard

Umatilla
March 31, 1934 - August 28, 2018

Beth L. Picard of Umatilla was born on March 31, 1934, in Shenandoah, Iowa, the daughter of Roland "Tex" and Helen (Erickson) Wilson. She passed away in Hermiston on Tuesday, August 28, 2018, at the age of 84.

Picard

Beth moved to Echo, Oregon, with her family in the early 1940s where she grew up and attended her schooling. She married Marvin L. Picard in Pendleton, Oregon, on May 1, 1952. The couple lived in the communities of Kennewick and Richland before moving to San Jose, Calif., in the late 1950s. They returned to Oregon in the early 1960s and have resided in the Umatilla area since that time.

Beth was a loving mother and grandmother. An avid reader, she read every Danielle Steele and James Paterson novel that was written. She also enjoyed doing cross stitch and having family get-togethers.

She is survived by her husband of 66 years, Marvin; four sons, Kris (Kathy) Picard, Robin Picard, Larry (Diana) Picard and Kevin (Bonnie) Picard; sister Marilyn Pratt; nine grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a sister, Vanyla Stephens; and a brother, Dale Wilson.

A memorial service will be held at 1 p.m. on Saturday, September 8, 2018, at Burns Mortuary chapel, 685 W. Hermiston Ave., Hermiston, Ore.

Family suggests memorial donations to the American Cancer Society or to Vange John Memorial Hospice.
