

Salvation Army gets ready to ring in the season

Red Kettle Campaign kicks off with dinner fundraiser Nov. 3

Bell ringers and red kettles often signal that the Christmas season has arrived. In preparation for the annual Red Kettle Campaign, The Salvation Army Pendleton Corps is hosting a fundraising dinner.

The “Keep the Kettles Hot” dinner and auction is Saturday from 5:30-8 p.m. at The Salvation Army Community Center, 150 S.E. Emigrant Ave., Pendleton.

The meal features tri-tip donated by the Umatilla County Cattlemen’s Association.

Also, the silent and live auction is coordinated by the Peace Lutheran Bells of Peace choir. In addition, the group will provide spirited entertainment.

Tickets are $25 each and can be purchased at The Salvation Army office, 150 S.E. Emigrant Ave., or the Pendleton Chamber of Commerce, 501 S. Main St.

Also, people are invited to donate items for the auction. They can be dropped off through Friday between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

The Salvation Army Pendleton Corps’ board of directors expressed gratitude for support provided by the community throughout the year. Proceeds from the fundraiser will stay in the local area to support programs for at-risk children and youths, family services to help those in need and the feeding program, which serves more than 17,000 meals annually.

In addition, people are invited to consider serving as a bell ringer during the Red Kettle Campaign. The annual collection event provides 30 percent of annual budget to fund local programs.

With many individuals and families struggling during the holidays, The Salvation Army offers an opportunity for a seasonal job through the Red Kettle bell ringer program. It provides a little less stress, and a lot more joy during the season, said Bill Dochnahl.

Also, volunteers interested in donating their time as bell ringers are welcome. This provides an opportunity for individuals, families, company or employee teams, as well as civic, social and church organizations to share a little of their time by giving back to the community during the holiday season.

Bell ringers are needed in Hermiston, Pendleton and Milton-Freewater. To register, visit www.ringoregon.org or stop by The Salvation Army office.

The Red Kettle Bell Ringer season begins Friday, Nov. 16 and runs through Christmas Eve. For more information, visit www.pendleton.salvationarmy.org or call 541-276-3369.

Mary Corp of Hermiston serves as a Salvation Army bell ringer during the 2014 holiday season in memory of her sister, Kathy, who was a longtime participant in the program. The Salvation Army Pendleton Corps is hosting a Nov. 3 dinner fundraiser for the 2018 Red Kettle Campaign. It’s also seeking people interested in being bell ringers.
