

Turkey Trot raises money for warming stations

Annual fun run/walk is on Thanksgiving Day

By TAMMY MALGESINI
COMMUNITY EDITOR

Before succumbing to the relaxing effects of the tryptophan-rich turkey dinner, people are invited to participate in the annual Turkey Trot.

Featuring both a 5K run/walk and a kids 1-mile dash, the event is coordinated by Club 24. Money raised from the Turkey Trot helps provide support to warming stations in both Hermiston and Pendleton.

A family-friendly event, people are encouraged to bundle up and wear costumes. Check-in and race day registration is Thursday, Nov. 22 — Thanksgiving Day — from 8-9 a.m. in front of Sno Road Winery, 111 W. Main St., Echo. The race officially starts at 9 a.m. — offering participants plenty of time to get home afterwards to put the turkey in the oven.

The registration fee is $15 for adults, $10 for youths 16 and younger and free for children under age 6. The course is wheelchair accessible and people can bring their well-mannered dogs.

In addition to financial support, both warming stations are in need of volunteers.

The Hermiston Warming Station is located at 1075 S. Highway 395 (across from Tower Apartments, next to Cornerstone Plaza). For more information, call board chair Teesie Hill at 541-289-2150 or text to 541-561-9485.

For more information or to pre-register for the Turkey Trot, visit www.brownpapertickets.com or stop by the local Club 24, 832 S. Highway 395, Hermiston. For questions, contact pendleton@club24fit.com or 541-429-4195.

Participants line up to register for a past Turkey Trot. This year's event is Nov. 22 — Thanksgiving Day — starting in front of Sno Road Winery in Echo. Money raised benefits warming stations in Hermiston and Pendleton.

New downtown business brings European flair

By JADE MCDOWELL
STAFF WRITER

A new business is bringing a taste of Europe to Hermiston.

Paint & Patina, which opened last week at 158 E Main St., features art supplies, dresses, beauty products, teas and more imported from Europe.

Owner Chelle Longley was busy decorating a white and gold Christmas tree in the window on Friday afternoon. Decorative shelves placed strategically around the shop were stocked with a variety of 100 percent natural vegan chalk paints, French stencils and vintage art supplies.

The business also features home decor from the Jeanne d'Arc Living line and Goldleaf beauty products. Longley said the storefront is an outgrowth of her online business, French Charmed.

She said her love of bringing European goods to the United States stems from her love of travel.

"I've traveled to Europe quite a bit in the past," she said. "I fell in love with Paris when I first went 25 years ago."

Now that she has two daughters living overseas — one in Germany and one in London — she has even more of an excuse to travel abroad and find new lines of products to bring to customers in the area. She hopes customers will enjoy finding something a little different.

Longley has past retail experience, including a lingerie store in Hermiston in the 1990s and past shops in Echo and Umatilla.

Longley plans to have an open house sometime in December, and to start paint classes in the new year. While she is still getting settled her hours are 12:30-5:30 p.m. on Thursdays and Fridays and noon to 4 p.m. on Saturdays, or by appointment.
