FIRST MCC VICTORY

Hermiston's Che Cadenas dribbles the ball ahead of Hanford's Jarod Marshel in the Bulldogs' 2-1 win against the Falcons on Tuesday.

The Hermiston boys like to keep their audience in suspense.

The soccer team made its Mid-Columbia Conference debut April 2 at home against Hanford. The Falcons took an early lead, but Hermiston came back to tie it up just before halftime, and finally pulled away for a 2-1 victory.

"We started off sloppy," sophomore midfielder Alexis Leal said. "We came in with big heads. I think we expected to send it every time. We were playing long ball."

Those expectations weren't unjustified — the Falcons were without a single win all the way through the preseason (0-6). Meanwhile, the Bulldogs were going in with a 1-4 overall record.

But the Falcons got off to a hot start when freshman midfielder Ethan Henning kicked a goal in not 8 minutes into the game. They would hold the 1-0 advantage for 24 minutes until Bulldog junior midfielder Coleman Solano assisted sophomore forward Moises Lopez for a goal to knot the score.

"We came out strong for those first couple of minutes," Hermiston coach Rich Harshberger said, "but then we went back on our heels. That's how they (Hanford) got their goal."

With the score tied at 1-1 at the half, Harshberger knew something had to change.

"We came in thinking we would send it. We weren't playing our usual system," he said. "That was the main message at the half — we don't play long ball. That's not who we are. That's not an option. The boys really responded to that, and stepped it up in the second half."

At 18:39 in the second half, senior midfielder Emilio Leal drove the ball down the field, gearing up to put a goal in, but soon found himself cornered by a Hanford defender.

He eyed an opening and passed the ball to Alexis Leal, who kicked in an easy goal to push the Bulldogs out front.

"If we were going to win this game, we couldn't just hang our heads and give in early," Alexis Leal said. "We needed to come back and start playing together, as a team. That's what made the difference for us in that second half."

Alexis Leal finished the night with three shots off goal, and only one on. Senior goalie Juan Navarrete recorded two saves.

"In the league, there are no easy games," Harshberger said. "We're a solid team, but we're still improving game by game. We're starting to get that team chemistry back."

HERMISTON 8, SOUTHRIDGE 0 — The Bulldogs started scoring goals just three minutes into their home game Friday against the Suns and never let up for their second Mid-Columbia Conference victory of the season.

"We were firing on all cylinders tonight," said coach Rich Harshberger. "Southridge is rebuilding a little bit. It was a pretty one-sided game."

Josue Cadenas scored two goals for Hermiston (3-4 overall, 2-0 MCC), and Emilio Leal, Josh Galvez, Gerardo Sotelo, Yovani Razon, and Moises Lopez each put one in, as well. Matt Mendez put an own-goal into play for Southridge to finish off the scoring.

The Suns recorded just four shots-on-goal for the night, but couldn't get one in past Hermiston's goalkeepers.

Irrigon's Ana Zacarias was a double winner Friday at the Carnival of Speed in Milton-Freewater.

Zacarias won the 200 in a time of 27.45, then topped the field in the 400 (1:03.64), just a step ahead of Ione's Hailey Heideman (1:03.79).

The track meet, in its 84th year for the boys, and 40th for the girls, did not see any of its records broken.

Pendleton won the boys team title with 125.5 points, with Walla Walla a distant second with 86 points. Heppner finished fifth (42) and Umatilla sixth (38).

Walla Walla won the girls team title with 109 points, with Ontario (64) second, Pendleton (62) third and Umatilla (46.5) fourth.

Umatilla's Patty Burres was second in the 100 (13.21) and the 200 (28.06), and ran a leg on the 4x100 relay team that finished third.

Pilot Rock freshman Emily Lambert finished second in the shot put (31-11), while Lexie Cox of Stanfield/Echo was second in the javelin (105-3).

In the 800, Madelyn Nichols of Heppner (2:31.98) finished second, then added a third-place finish in the 1,500 with a personal best time of 5:17.05.

In the boys meet, Derek Howard of Heppner took top honors in the shot put with a mark of 47-5, and was fourth in the discus (121-7).

Umatilla's Zayne Troeger finished third in the 800 (2:09.34), and ran a leg on the winning 4x400 relay (3:48.17) along with Cesar DeLaCruz, Julian Gutierrez and Aarik Russell. Troeger also was sixth in the 3,000 (9:54.79).

In the 1,500, Heppner's Trent Smith was fourth (4:26.86), closely followed by Sisay Hurty (4:27.31) of Stanfield/Echo.
