The Georgia Satellites | Thur. Aug. 8, 2019 | 9:00 PM ★

(LOCAL BAND-BLUE TATTOO WILL TAKE THE STAGE TO START THE PARTY AT 7:15 P.M.)

Founded in 1985 by Rick Richards, Rick Price, singer Dan Baird and drummer Mauro Magellan, the Satellites quickly launched into stardom with hits like "Keep Your Hands to Yourself," "Battleship Chains", "Can't Stand the Pain", "Hippy Hippy Shake", and others. The Georgia Satellites were one of the most ferocious bands of the 1980's. What set them apart from the other 10,000 groups that cranked their amps to 11, was that their wild riffs and tanked cries came from a quartet that understood it's place in rock tradition and fought hard to solidify it with each recording. Critically acclaimed albums and mind- bending performances earned the boys a permanent spot in music history.

When "Sugar Ray's" breakthrough hit song "Fly" put them on the map in 1997, lead vocalist Mark McGrath was thrust into the public eye. It's no doubt the band maintains its momentum due in no small part to the good looks, charisma and talent of its front man, Mark McGrath Later that year, and following the success of their number-one hit, Sugar Ray released its second album, "Floored," which went double platinum. Sugar Ray's success rocketed McGrath to pop-star status, as he graced the covers of "Rolling Stone" and "Spin." He even made People magazine's "Sexiest Man Alive" issue, named "Sexiest Rocker" in 1998 with hit singles "Every Morning," "Someday" and "Falls Apart." In addition, McGrath has made guest appearances on the hit television dramas "Las Vegas", "North Shore", The Neighbors, The Office, Law and Order SVU and The Drew Carey Show to name a few.
