

SPECIAL RECOGNITION

At the 2018 Umatilla County Fair Appreciation Dinner this past January, the Fair Board thanked all of the 2018 fair sponsors, current and previous fair superintendents, previous award winners, past grand marshals, past board members, past fair court, ambassadors and chaperones and all who volunteered or contributed in any way.

Fair Board Chairman Lucas Wagner served as the evening's emcee and honored Don Miller, his wife Linda along with Gay Newman with his wife Alice, for their many, many years of service, as they stepped down from the Umatilla County Fair Board.

The honor of 2019 Umatilla County Fair Grand Marshal was given to Dan and Terri Dorrان. Dan served on the Umatilla County Fair Board for over 16 years and he, Terri and the entire Dorrان family has made it their life's mission to support fair and rodeo, 4-H and FFA

Steve Wallace of Western Ag Improvement was given a Special Recognition plaque for his donation of time and materials over the years, to improve the fairgrounds and for providing many necessary pieces to ensure the success of the Umatilla County Fair.

Miguel Velasco, of Velasco Used Cars received the Business Partnership Award for his responsibility for the ever growing success of the fair's Latino Night.

David Fesler and Terrie Dennis were named Fair Volunteers of the year for 2018 due to their commitment and dedication to the entire production of the fair and their involvement with the county's young exhibitors.

The outgoing 2018 Fair Court recounted their year in a video of their 2018 memories and touched the audience with their heartfelt speeches as they crowned the new incoming 2019 fair court princesses

Fair Coordinator Angie McNalley closed the program by thanking the volunteers and sponsors and recognizing the Fair Board and their families for helping her fulfill her duties, calling them the "hardest working volunteer employees around."
