

RULES THAT APPLY TO ALL FFA EXHIBITORS:

Overall Superintendent - Leah Smith

All entries must:

1. Be submitted through ShoWorks, completed in detail and approved by the Agriculture Science Instructor. Members will not be permitted to exhibit an entry that has not been properly entered in keeping with the deadline date. See your Ag Advisor for details.
2. Be documented as an official Supervised Agricultural Experience Project with a AET Record Book that verifies initiation and management of the entry 60 days prior to the Fair or by dates specified by other Fair rules.
3. Be in place on the Fairgrounds Monday, August 5th. Weigh-in will be on Monday, August 5th. All market animals will weigh in upon arrival, on a first come first serve basis. All animals must remain loaded until their turn at the scales.
4. Be removed from the Fairgrounds on Sunday, August 11th from 7- 10:00 a.m. Removal of entries prior to release time may cause forfeiture of premium money.
5. Exhibitors are to use space assigned by the department Superintendent. Any change in mechanical structure of exhibit (example: removal or remodeling stall pens, partitions, gates, etc.) will be grounds for forfeiture of premium at discretion of FFA management. See Superintendent for permissible alterations. ENTRIES ARE NOT TO BE PUT IN PLACE UNTIL THE DEPARTMENT SUPERINTENDENT HAS BEEN CONTACTED FOR INSTRUCTIONS.
6. FFA Chapters may compete the same as individuals. In this case, the chapter will be assigned an exhibitor number. Chapters entering livestock must indicate on registration form the name of the member who will show the animal.
7. Each chapter with members exhibiting livestock must make a Herdsmanship entry for each kind of livestock entered, namely Beef, Dairy, Sheep, Swine, Goats, Rabbit and Poultry.
8. Participants in the above activities must be in Official Dress.
9. Enterprises carried in 4-H during the current year may not be exhibited in the FFA division by an FFA member.
10. FFA exhibitors must be at the time of participation in the Fair a secondary student, including current year graduating seniors, and enrolled in at least one vocational education course for an agricultural occupation, including a Supervised Agricultural Experience Program, with the objective of establishment in an agricultural occupation.
11. Universal restraints and showmanship tools will be provided and used in the Master Showmanship contest. These materials will be determined by the FFA superintendents and can be changed year to year as is relevant or available

FFA ANIMAL WELFARE AND TREATMENT POLICY

Quality Assurance and Animal Welfare

- Drug Abuse. No illegal drug, off label use of drugs (uses other than specifically allowed on the drug label), or other use of artificial means to alter the physical composition, appearance, or disposition of a project animal is permitted. Violators may face repercussions listed below.
- Physical Abuse. No physical abuse of project animals is permitted in any public or private setting. Physical abuse includes, but is not limited to, surgical or other physical alteration of animal appearance or practices resulting in bruising or injury from the showman. It also includes practices resulting in inordinate levels of shrink, fill, or animal stress other than routine management in accordance with acceptable industry animal husbandry practices, such as including appropriate amounts and methods of exercise and training. Violators may face repercussions listed below.

In the event, that repercussions are necessary for violations of the FFA animal welfare and treatment policy, the following may be applied to the violator at the discretion of the Blue Mt. FFA Advisors.

1. Removal from the showmanship/market contest and disqualified with the loss of all placing and premiums.
2. Rule number one, along with the immediate removal from the livestock show and the loss of eligibility to show livestock within the Blue Mt. FFA organization.
3. All of the above and removal from the stock show. The student will not be able to sell within the livestock auction.

In the event, violations occur within the Master Showmanship contest, the following repercussions may apply:

1. Removal and disqualification from the Master Showmanship contest.
2. Removal and disqualification from the Master Showmanship contest, losing the privilege to compete again in the future (This rule may be commonly applied after a first offense has already occurred, but applied at FFA advisor discretion).
3. All of the above and removal from the stock show. The student will not be able to sell within the livestock auction.

OFFICIAL DRESS FOR OREGON FFA LIVESTOCK EXHIBITORS AND CONTEST PARTICIPANTS

White shirt/blouse, official FFA tie/scarf and official FFA jacket zipped to the top. Black pants/slacks or jeans. White pants/slacks are strongly encouraged for goats and dairy exhibitors. Participants in the above activities must be in official dress. Superintendents have the authority to omit the wearing of jackets depending on the weather.

OFFICIAL DRESS SHOULD BE WORN AT THE AWARD PROGRAM

Pictures are taken of award winners that are sent to donors and newspapers. Members should be seen in something other than street clothes.

DRESS RIGHT - When you look your best, you do your best!

UMATILLA COUNTY FAIR YOUTH LIVESTOCK AUCTION

Superintendent-Marie Linnell

1. Animals entered in market classes must have Country of Origin Labeling (COOL) affidavit, Oregon 4-H Animal Science Exhibitor Agreement, and a health record signed by the exhibitor. Market animals will NOT be allowed across the scales at Fair, without these documents in place. Downloadable forms are available online at <https://extension.oregonstate.edu/4h/umatilla/fair> or at your local Extension Office. Market lambs and goats will not be allowed across the scales without a SCRAPIE tag and/or tattoo.
2. All livestock must be owned and in possession of the 4-H or FFA member by the dates listed on the table below. Rabbits and Poultry must be banded and tattooed by May 15, 2019. A mandatory pre-show tagging (weighing is optional) of market steers, hogs, lambs and goats is required. Each exhibitor will be allowed to tag a maximum of 2 animals per species. A visual tag will be used on all four species with an EID tag being used on steers only. All tags will be paid for by the Umatilla County Fair. Steers that are age and source verified that already are tagged with an EID tag will be required to attend the mandatory weigh-in to receive a visual tag. All exhibitors wishing to participate in the AIBAA/Steer of Merit Award must have weighed their steers on March 9, 2019.
