

OBITUARIES

Henry Taylor Nichols Jr.

Klamath Falls

September 13, 1931 — February 14, 2019

Henry Nichols, also known as Joe or Hank, passed away February 14, 2019. Mr. Nichols was born in Malin, Oregon, on September 13, 1931. He was a graduate of Klamath Union High School where he was an all-state halfback and led the great 1949 football team into the Oregon State playoffs. He was a rodeo athlete and later became an accomplished rodeo announcer.

Following high school he entered Grays Harbor College on a football scholarship where he played for two years. The Korean War was at its zenith and he decided to enter the Air Force to serve his country, where he served for four years.

Upon his discharge from the service, he knew he loved horses, cows, and animal agriculture and graduated from Cal Poly State University with a B.S. in animal husbandry in 1960 and worked and prospered in the industry his entire life. He was a "horse whisperer" long before the term became popular and taught his kids the art of horsemanship as well.

He loved helping, coaching, and traveling with his family as they participated in sporting events and rodeo. He was always there with a word of encouragement or advice. He was a true family man who was happiest when he was with his family. Mr. Nichols married Evelyn Betty Jean McClain in 1956, also from Klamath Falls, and they raised three children in Echo, Oregon, where they lived and prospered for 25 years.

Mr. Nichols is survived by his wife of 62 years, his children Wade, Nita, and Lyle, his four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mr. Nichols lived life to the fullest, and his motto that he taught his family and many others to live by was: Always do your best and a little more while working hard and playing hard.

Mr. Nichols will be sorely missed by a whole host of people from different walks of life. He touched so many in his travels, while working hard and playing hard. He always had a laugh and a story or two to tell in all situations and meetings. His boots will be tremendously hard to fill as a husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, friend, and associate. When you think of him, he would like nothing better than to remember the good times and have a drink or two in remembrance. He lived life to the fullest as he "threw a leg over and rode it for all it was worth." He is in Heaven teaching them all how to Let 'er Buck.

There will be a celebration of life for Joe Nichols in Echo, Oregon, at the Echo Ridge Winery on Saturday, July 6, 2019, from 4-7 p.m.

The Nichols family welcomes all who knew Joe, where we will raise a glass and tell stories.

Ivan J. Strese

Hermiston

June 28, 1929 — June 9, 2019

Ivan J. Strese of Hermiston was born June 28, 1929, in Condon, Oregon, the son of Alfred and Margaret (Hunter) Strese. He passed away surrounded by his family and friends on Sunday, June 9, 2019, in Hermiston at the age of 89.

Ivan grew up in the communities of Condon and Fossil, Oregon. At a young age, he began working in sawmills in Condon and Pendleton. In 1964 he moved to Hermiston where he has lived for the past 55 years. He worked for Marlette Homes where he painted and assembled axles for manufactured homes beginning in 1968 and continued until retiring in 2004.

Ivan enjoyed taking photos and traveling with his wife Ethel, working in his yard and caring for his many cats. He was a longtime member of the Hermiston Seventh-day Adventist church where he volunteered for many projects and enjoyed supporting missions.

Ivan married Ethel Cockerham on December 31, 1964, in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho. She preceded him in death in 2009. He was also preceded in death by his parents and an infant brother.

He is survived by a stepdaughter, Sharon (Dan) Coffey; grandchildren James, Timothy and Karmen Hauner; five great-grandchildren; and two great-great-granddaughters.

A funeral service will be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday, June 18, 2019, in the Burns Mortuary chapel, 685 W. Hermiston Ave., Hermiston, Oregon. Burial will follow in the Hermiston Cemetery.

Family suggest memorial donations be made to the Hermiston Jr. Academy.

Arrangements by Burns Mortuary of Hermiston. To leave an online condolence for the family please go to www.burnsmortuaryhermiston.com.
