

2019 FARM-CITY PRO RODEO FLAG TEAM

Ambassadors ride into the arena at the start of rodeo

They'll be riding into the Farm-City Pro Rodeo arena under a new name, but riders in the rodeo's grand entry will be showing off the same skill and pageantry as always.

The women — this year dubbed "ambassadors" — sweep into the arena on horseback at the start of each night to perform figure eights and other choreographed movements, while holding aloft the American flag and the flags of eight title sponsors.

Jami Ewert will lead the ambassadors with the American flag this year, while Kacilyn Green, Amber Martin, Ainsley Philippi, Teena Griffin, Sydnee Miller, Tanna Osmin, Allyson Terry, Ashley Price and Martee Kelly will carry the sponsor flags.

Torrie Griggs is returning for another year as the organizer of the team, and is on the rodeo board of directors as well.

"I'm looking forward to being a part of the ambassadors again for the Farm City, and to help with showcasing our sponsors," she said.
