

OBITUARIES

Janet Sue Braaten

Umatilla

October 26, 1945 — January 9, 2020

Janet Sue Braaten of Umatilla was born October 26, 1945, in Spokane, Washington, the daughter of Donald and Louise (Byrnes) Harryman. She passed away in Kennewick, Washington, on January 9, 2020, at the age of 74.

Janet spent her early years in Pendleton before moving to Portland, Oregon, where she met and married Bud Fouts (the father of her first three children). The couple later divorced. She married Larry Braaten in November of 1967 and the couple welcomed two beautiful daughters. They lived in Vancouver, Wash., Moses Lake, Wash., Palmer, Alaska, and Portland.

She worked as an office manager for Continental Armored Car in Portland for several years. She and her husband Larry then purchased a semi-truck and drove together throughout the United States. They moved to Umatilla, Ore., in 2000 where they have resided since.

Janet enjoyed sewing and loved spending time with her children and grandchildren. She was a prayer partner for TBN for several years, loved reading her Bible and had a strong faith and unwavering belief in her Lord and Saviour.

She was preceded in death by her parents; daughter Laura Johnson; brothers Gerald and William Harryman and Dennis Fillman; and sister Arlene Keifer.

She is survived by her husband of 52 years, Larry Braaten of Umatilla; sons Donald Fouts of Las Vegas, Nev., and Daniel Fouts of Gilbert, Ariz.; daughters Denise Key of Lewiston, Idaho, and Tammy Wyckoff of Spokane, Wash.; brother Gordon Byrnes of Pilot Rock, Ore.; sister Ilene Jameson of Portland, Ore.; 17 grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, February 5, 2020, at Burns Mortuary chapel, 685 W. Hermiston Ave., Hermiston, Ore.

Carol E. Glass

Hermiston

February 8, 1940 — January 13, 2020

Carol E. Glass of Hermiston, Oregon, was born on February 8, 1940, in Spokane, Washington, to parents Ralph and Effie Dicken. She passed away on January 13, 2020, in Hermiston, Oregon, after a long battle with cancer at the age of 79 years.

Her mother died in childbirth and Carol was raised by her father and grandma Sarah for nine years before her father remarried. Carol graduated from John Rogers High School in Spokane before attending the Multnomah School of the Bible in Portland, Oregon. She came to Hermiston in 1961 to spend the summer with her sister and her husband, Donna and Roy Weber. Carol worked at the Richmond Ice Cream Store that summer and met her future husband, Chuck Glass.

Although Donna and Roy moved from Hermiston, Carol remained and married Chuck in 1962. Carol and Chuck had two children, Timothy and Lori, before later divorcing in 1973. She later worked as a cook at many local restaurants, including the Blue Bucket, Frusus Restaurant and at the Umatilla Army Depot during the disarmament.

Carol attended Trinity Lutheran Church and had been a member of the Emblem Club. She loved bingo, going to the senior center and morning coffee with her friends at McDonalds. She was an avid sports fan, was a jigsaw puzzle whiz and kept an immaculate yard. Carol was diagnosed with cancer in 2004 and fought a gallant battle through the years as cancer reoccurred and she finally succumbed.

She is survived by her son Tim Glass, daughter Lori Rodriguez and her husband Chendo; grandsons Derek and Justin; great-grandchildren Sebastian and Penelope; sister Donna Weber, and nieces and nephews.

A funeral service was held on Saturday, January 18, 2020, at 11 a.m. at Burns Mortuary chapel, Hermiston, Oregon. Burial followed at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.

Those who wish may make contributions in Carol's memory to Susan G. Komen cancer research at <https://ww5.komen.org>

Jeremy G. Sallee

Hermiston

May 13, 1978 — January 11, 2020

Jeremy G. Sallee was born on May 13, 1978, in Portland, Oregon, to parents Darrel and Rhonda Simmons Sallee. He died on January 11, 2020, at his home in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 41 years.

Jeremy was raised and attended West Park Elementary, Armand Larive Middle School and Hermiston High School, graduating in the class of 1997. He participated in wrestling, baseball, 4-H and rodeo. Jeremy graduated from Wyoming Tech with a degree in mechanics.

He returned to Hermiston and worked at Auto-Kool. Jeremy loved ranching and later followed his passion and went to work as a cowboy for Healy Ranch. He strived to be a "good cowboy" every day.

Jeremy served in the Oregon National Guard as a 19D Cavalry Scout in 1-HHC 3-116 CAV.

Jeremy enjoyed fishing, hunting, riding horses, roping, playing baseball and softball. He had a special ability to connect with kids. He utilized this by coaching youth sports as well as teaching them about horsemanship. He was an avid downhill skier. He loved ski trips in the winter and we would go nearly every weekend when the mountains had snow.

He is survived by his mother, Rhonda Sallee, Hermiston, Ore.; sister

Jolene Sallee Davis, Hermiston, Ore.; brother Jacob Sallee, Seattle, Wash.; niece Molly Davis, Hermiston, Ore.; aunts Sonya Sallee, Hermiston, Ore., and Anna Dee VanNattan, Phoenix, Ariz.; uncle and aunt Dan and Laurel Simmons, Salem, Ore.; uncle Ron Simmons, McMinnville, Ore.; many cousins; and Hank, his special dog that was always by his side.

Jeremy was preceded in death by his father, Darrel Sallee, in 2014; and his grandparents Merel and Marie Sallee, and Dan and Fern Simmons.

A graveside funeral service was held on Monday, January 20, 2020, at 11 a.m. at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon. A celebration of life service followed at 12 noon at the Oregon National Guard Armory, 900 S.E. Columbia Drive, Hermiston, Oregon.

Those who wish may make contributions in Jeremy's memory to the Buckaroo Rodeo Bible Camp or Hermiston Gun Club Youth Shooters Program c/o Burns Mortuary of Hermiston, P.O. Box 289, Hermiston, OR 97838.

Please share memories of Jeremy with his family at burnsmortuaryhermiston.com.

Julie Faye (Mann) Eubanks

Enterprise

October 29, 1950 — December 30, 2019

Julie Eubanks passed away in her home surrounded by her children and husband after a long battle with cancer related to Lynch Syndrome.

Julie's ancestors were pioneers in Walla Walla Valley. Her mother, Peggy Lee Reavis, was born and raised in Enterprise. Her grandmother India (Ault) Reavis was a schoolteacher and her grandfather D.B. Reavis was the county clerk. Julie's father, Irvin Mann, and his family also had a presence in the county as cattlemen and landowners. Julie was born in Walla Walla and raised on the Mann cattle ranch near Stanfield.

Julie graduated from Hermiston High School in 1968 and graduated from Willamette University with a degree in political science. She started her career working at the legislature in Salem where her father was a state representative and later director of the Oregon Department of Agriculture under Governor McCall.

Julie later moved to Portland where she worked in insurance and then banking achieving the title of senior vice president for U.S. Trust Company before transitioning to the role of major gift officer for Providence St. Vincent Medical Foundation's Brain Institute. In this role, she had many accomplishments including fundraising for the hospital's interactive surgical MRI and championing the implementation of telemedicine in rural hospitals, including Walla Walla Memorial Hospital. Telemedicine allows specialists to remotely diagnose stroke and other ailments, saving many lives.

Julie was a board member and president of the Northwest Planned Giving Roundtable during her career, and in retirement served on the board of the Walla Walla County Humane Society. She was also a member of the county's chapter R of P.E.O., as were her mother and grandmother Reavis.

She met her future husband, Oregon Symphony musician Mark Eubanks, in 1981 on a blind date in Portland. Their children are John, Gillian and Miles Eubanks of Portland. In 2014 Julie and Mark moved to Enterprise after building a home on Alder Slope within view of her great-great-grandfather's pink home atop Reavis Lane.

Julie is survived by her siblings Lee Ann Eggleston and Linc Mann of Portland and Debbie Buhler of Brookings, and her aunt Pat Hopper and cousins Susie Lyon and Patsy Taylor of Umatilla County. She was preceded in death by her mother, father, brother David Mann, and cousins Mike and Sally Hopper.

Remembrances may be directed to the Walla Walla County Humane Society and to Lynch Syndrome International, which supports research for this inherited gene mutation.
