Brian Hollis Moore

Hermiston

June 6, 1993 — June 14, 2020

Brian Hollis Moore of Hermiston was born June 6, 1993, in Hermiston to Brandi Nagode and Timothy Moore.

He passed away in Hermiston on Sunday, June 14, 2020, at 27 years old. He was a loving husband, and father to three beautiful daughters. He lived in Hermiston throughout his childhood where he attended school, graduating from Hermiston High School in the class of 2011.

Brian was an avid hunter, fisherman, and a gun and knife enthusiast. He learned his love of hunting and fishing from his grandfather John Nagode. His love of guns became something he and his brother Johnathon would share. His other love was his two dogs, Howard and Coco.

Brian married Saige

McCloud-Shover on October 25, 2015.

He is survived by his wife, Saige; three daughters, Sawyer, Evelyn and Layla;

Moore

mother Brandi (Patrick) Perrin; father Timothy (Elsie Samakai) Moore; grandparents John and Susan Nagode, Phyllis Moore and Helen Perrin; brothers Johnathon Moore, Ryan

Stewart, Austin Perrin and Taylor Perrin; sisters Nahla Samakai-Moore, Savannah Samakai-Moore and Caitlin Hartley; and many extended family members.

A private family Celebration of Life was held.

Hood River man found dead near Hermiston in apparent murder

HERMISTON HERALD

The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office is working alongside Oregon State Police to investigate an apparent homicide after a Hood River man was found dead Saturday, June 20, with gunshot wounds in a pickup stopped at an intersection near Hermiston.

Sheriff's deputies and state troopers responded to the intersection of Lamb Road and Interstate 82 around 8:30 p.m. on June 20 after a caller reported a man was stopped in a pickup and needed medical attention, a press release stated.

Upon arriving at the scene, police found the body of Tracey Scott Medows, 29, who had suffered gunshot wounds.

The Umatilla-Morrow Major Crimes Team has been activated to investigate, the release stated, and will be assisted by the Oregon State Police Crime Lab.

This marks the third homicide investigation in Umatilla County over the last 14 days.

The major crime team is currently investigating the death of Jesus Eli Lopez, 21, who was found shot to death June 9 at a Hermiston residence on East Francolin Avenue.

The Pendleton Police Department also arrested a man June 23 for allegedly beating another man to death earlier that morning.
