June Kamm

Pendleton

June 19, 1929 — Sept. 12, 2020

her husband of 60 years passed on, she devoted her time to caring for her oldest son, Wade, who was disabled in a rodeo accident.

June had many friends that she and Les made while Les was competing on the professional rodeo circuit, and June loved staying in touch with them over the years and seeing them when they came to Pendleton for the Round-up. She had a long Christmas list and loved hearing from friends.

The last few years of June’s life she and Wade lived in assisted living, which she loved for the company and care she received from the other residents and staff. When June’s health needs started to exceed what assisted living could provide for her, she moved in with Scott and Sherri and they took care of her needs in the months before her death.

June was preceded in death by her husband, Les Kamm; parents, Herman and Nora; her sister, Mildred Rosenberg Simpson; and her brothers, Sonny and Jim Rosenberg.

She is survived by her seven children, Susan Carrico, Sally (Ross) Alexander, Shari Kamm, Wade Kamm, Scott (Sherri) Kamm, Syndie (Brian) Freeland and Brett (Kelli) Kamm, and grandchildren, Garth Davis, Harlin and Casey Carrico, Heather (Bryan) Klein, Andrea (Brooks) Quaintance, Chase (Melissa) Fisher, and Ty (Whitney) Fisher, Gabrielle and Hanna Kamm, Koty and Kaci Kamm. She also is survived by numerous great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

A memorial service is in the planning stages pending coronavirus developments.
