

OBITUARIES

Kelie Eileen (Orr) Dike

Elgin

January 9, 1969 — October 4, 2020

Kelie Eileen (Orr) Dike, a radiant, beautiful loving mother, sister, and daughter, passed away from pneumonia on Sunday, October 4, 2020.

She has gone to live with those who have passed before her including 20-year-old cat Tink and her loving Heavenly Father and Lord and savior Jesus Christ.

Kelie was born in Pendleton, Oregon, on January 9, 1969, to parents Otis Clayton Orr and Verna Lee Orr.

Kelie had many joys in life. Being a mountaineer, she taught her children how to track, shoot, and dress deer and elk. Being a phenomenal baker and cook, better than Gordan Ramsey, she loved to teach her children and their spouses how to cook; she was also famous for her whisky fudge, as one newspaper article would say.

She never met a stranger and loved to love people and was loved by all in return. She had a rare gift for animals and was responsible for saving countless of all kinds throughout her lifetime.

Dike

She is an amazing mother and taught her children compassion, humility and to be giving.

Kelie leaves behind five children and eight grandchildren, two sisters and her parents: daughter Heather Bishop with spouse Shad Bishop, with their children Aurora, Paizlee and Blake; son Caleb Brown with his children Caiden and Bentley; son Zane Dike with spouse Laila and their children Karalina and Grayson; son Austin Dike and spouse Stephanie; daughter Bailey Dike with fiance Kemper Kinney and baby Atticus Kinney; sisters Tammy Turner and Margret Harp; father Clayton Orr, and mother Verna Lee Orr.

Mommy, Nana, daughter and sister, we love you more than the moon, the stars and the sky above. Thank you for being there for all of us and many more.

You are missed and you added much good to our lives.

Samuel James Weimer

Hermiston

December 17, 1938 — September 30, 2020

Samuel James Weimer passed away Sept. 30, 2020, at the age of 81.

Sam was born in Pomeroy, Washington, to James L. Weimer and Ardis Irene (Ruark) Weimer on Dec. 17, 1938. His sister, Sharon, joined him Oct. 31, 1943. He was raised in Pomeroy and graduated from Pomeroy High School in 1956.

Sam was united in marriage to Sally Ann Wade on June 28, 1958, and welcomed Shelly and Sheila. The family lived in Pomeroy until a job transfer with his company, Dye Seed Ranch, provided a move to Hermiston in 1966. When the company returned to Pomeroy, the family stayed in Hermiston.

Sam accepted a position with Pendleton Grain Growers in 1968 in the irrigation sales and design department and continued in that field for 36 years until his retirement in 2004. He continued working in the irrigation field by accepting a position with Valmont NW Industries for six years until his second retirement in 2010.

Weimer

Sam learned to fly while working for PG& and would mix business and pleasure when the opportunity arose. If he needed his flying, he would always ask me to go along. If he had to go check on a farmer's field or a potential irrigation project, he would ask me to ride along with him.

I really appreciated these trips in the air and on the land as I got to learn more about him and his love of irrigation.

Sam's faith was an integral part of whom he was. He attended St. John's Episcopal Church and served on the vestry as a board member, junior and senior warden. He participated in the Sunday Eucharist as a lay reader and a part-time member of the altar guild. He loved singing and joined a local community gospel choir. The choir would sing once a month and would try to sing at various churches that their service times permitted.

He also worked as a team member at Ascension

Camp during their retreats for a number of years.

Tennis was a favorite playing sport of his until an injury sidelined him. Then there was his jogging. You could tell who it was running behind you just by his foot placement on the pavement. His gait was his own, a gait that you immediately associated to be his. I would help him train for his runs by pacing him on my bike. He never complained should I by chance happen to increase his pace, he just kept up with me. Bloomsday became a family affair for 10 years.

Boating was a lifelong passion of Sam's from his youth and up until his late 70s. RVing and boating at Lake Roosevelt became a family gathering. When we weren't fishing, we would RV to Wallowa Lake, Lincoln City or Ft. Stevenson, Washington.

Sam was a 33-year member of the Hermiston Kiwanis Club and lifelong member of Fraternal Order of Elks.

Sam married Leslie Anne Batease on October 4, 1980, and brought to this marriage her sons, Robert and Michael.

Sam is survived by his wife of 40 years, Leslie, and stepsons Robert and Michael; his first wife Sally and their children Shelly (Temby Zander) and Sheila (Frank Ashbeck) of Pendleton; his grandchildren Shelby (Brian) McQuinn, Jennifer (Conan) Fisher and TJ (Erin) Zander of Pendleton, Tonya (Nate) McFarlane of Echo, Jake Batease, Caleb Batease and Rebecca Batease of John Day, and Knox Batease of Boise, Idaho; and his sister Sharon (Wayne) Davis of Pomeroy, Washington. He also survived by nine great-grandchildren, and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

As the kids would say, Dad loved life, and that he was a caring husband, father, and grandfather. He supported and gave of himself to numerous individuals and their causes.

In lieu of flowers, remembrances can be made to St. John's Episcopal Church, 665 E. Gladys Ave., Hermiston, OR 97838, or Ascension School Camp and Conference Center, P.O. Box 278, Cove, OR 97824.

A celebration service will be held on Saturday, Oct. 17, 2020, at 1 p.m. at New Hope Community Church, 1350 S. Highway 395, Hermiston, OR 97838.

Arrangements by Burns Mortuary of Hermiston, Oregon. Please share memories of Sam with his family at burnsmortuaryhermiston.com.
