Echo winery stages live music event

People are invited to enjoy country and western music as Echo Ridge Cellars welcomes Joni Harms for its first live music event in more than a year.

The Canby native was inducted into the Western Music Hall of Fame this past fall. Her hits "Bless the Farmer" and "Let's Put the Western Back in the Country" reveal her roots in the family ranch that was homesteaded by her great-great-grandfather in 1872. She has 14 albums, which include the tunes "Two-Steppin' Texas Blue" and "Cowboy Coffee" that often get people on their feet on the dance floor.

The event is Sunday, May 2, from 1-3 p.m. at the winery, 551 Thielsen St., Echo. There is no cover charge. For questions, call 541-376-8100.

PET OF THE WEEK

MEET LILLY

Lilly is like a Golden Lab in a tiny package. She is sweet, silly and soulful. She did have some separation anxiety issues with her previous adopter, so she needs a home where family is there for her, maybe a playmate who isn't demanding. She loves a good belly rub and her soft blanket.
