Library encourages creativity to honor members of the military

With Memorial Day just around the corner, the Hermiston Public Library invites the public to share their creativity in honoring the troops. People are invited to send in a short story, poem, drawing or painting that they have created to honor our country's military personnel. Prizes will be awarded.

Entries can be sent to the library via Facebook Messenger or emailed to chawkins@hermiston.or.us. Submissions will be posted to the library's social media pages, unless you request it not be. For questions, call 541-567-2882 or stop by the library at 235 E. Gladys Ave., Hermiston.

Bikers rev up for motorcycle awareness run

A motorcycle event to raise awareness and money for BikerDown is planned in Morrow and Umatilla counties.

With the nice weather upon us, people are encouraged to watch out for an increase in motorcyclists on the road. BikerDown also strives to create a proactive riding culture to help maintain safety.

The Look Twice, Save a Life Run is Sunday, May 16 starting from Smiley's Happy Place, 102 Boardman Ave., Boardman. Registration begins at 10:30 a.m. and kickstands are up at 11:30 a.m.

All motorcycles, cars and trucks are welcome to participate with a suggested donation of $15. Also, participants are invited to arrive early as Smiley's will be serving biscuits and gravy with all proceeds going to the BikerDown fund.

The ride will go through Irrigon, Umatilla, Hermiston and Stanfield, where participants will gather at Bard Park for live music, a bike show and prizes. In addition, food will be available from Becky's Burger Wagon.

BikerDown was founded in 2011 by Laurie Easton-Montoya, who was on a ride when several bikers went down. The nonprofit organization is dedicated to helping bikers get through tough times by providing emotional support, financial assistance, medical equipment and other services as needed.

For more about the motorcycle awareness event, look for a link at www.facebook.com/smileysboardman or call Derrick Erickson at 541-663-6191; and for more about BikerDown, visit www.bikerdown.org.

Musical acts tune up for cystic fibrosis fundraiser on May 15

Brewer's Grade Band and Soul Patch The Duo will perform for the Breath of Life fundraiser in Hermiston.

The event is Saturday, May 15, at 6 p.m. at Maxwell Pavilion, 145 N. First Place, Hermiston. Tickets, which are available at the door, are $12 for adults and $5 for kids ages 6 and up.

In addition to music and dancing, there will be a live auction and dessert. Also, a food truck will be on-site for purchases, and beer and wine will be available.

Money raised from the event will go to support research for cystic fibrosis. A genetic disease, it causes the lungs to produce a thick, sticky mucus. With advances made through research over the past 60 years, the life expectancy of patients with the disease has increased from age 5 to more than 40.

For more about cystic fibrosis, visit www.cff.org. For questions about the fundraiser, contact 541-314-2715, breathof-life4cf@gmail.com or visit www.facebook.com/breathoflife4cf.
