Hermiston church hosts Vatican exhibit

Sacred relics from the Vatican collection are featured during a teaching exposition at Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church. More than 150 relics will be present, some as old as 2,000 years. Among the treasures will be relics of the Twelve Apostles, St. Joseph, St. Maria Goretti, St. Therese of Lisieux (the "Little Flower"), St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, and St. Faustina Kowalska. There will also be a portion of the Veil of Our Lady and one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world. Treasures of the Church is Thursday, June 3, at 6 p.m. at the church, located at 565 W. Hermiston Ave., Hermiston. Those in attendance will be able to examine each relic.

Those planning to attend are invited to bring your articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards) and pictures of ill friends/family members, which you will be able to touch to the reliquaries as a means of intercession. The exposition is directed by Father Carlos Martins. For more information, visit www.TreasuresOfTheChurch.com.

Library announces kids' coloring activity

Children 12 and under are encouraged to participate in the Kid's Monthly Coloring Page

Activity at the Hermiston Public Library. Starting the first Thursday of the month, kids are invited to stop and pick up a coloring page located on a special table in the library. Utilizing your artistic abilities, color the page and then return it to the library. Be sure to put your first name and age along the bottom of the page and you will receive a free movie voucher — limit one entry per child, while supplies last. The last day to turn in the coloring sheet is Wednesday, June 30.

Morrow County Cultural Coalition announces grant recipients

Applications for grants are available, and volunteers are needed to Morrow County Cultural Coalition Information. Applications must be submitted by August 1, 2021. For more information, visit the Oregon Cultural Trust site at www.culturaltrust.org. The local coalition is actively seeking volunteers for the committee. Anyone interested in making a donation to the Oregon Cultural Trust or participating on the committee is encouraged to contact Papineau or call Melissa Lindsay at 541-561-0234.

The Morrow County Cultural Coalition, supported by Oregon's Cultural Trust Foundation, recently granted 2020 awards made to Morrow County organizations. In addition, it announced that it is accepting applications for 2021. The 2020 grant recipients include:

- Inland Northwest Musicians, to assist local musicians in sustaining their ability to continue to provide free concerts to the citizens of Morrow County following the COVID-19 pandemic shutdown.
- Hepner Community Foundation, for collecting, reproducing and displaying historical photographs of ranching, logging, farming and local history in the refurbished historic Gilliam and Bisbee Building.
- Oregon Trail Library District, for efforts in improving access to information and services regarding arts and crafts videos and increasing digital offerings for patrons to access at home.
- Morrow County Historical Society, to help with the costs of printing the Morrow County Chronicles.

Applications for the 2021 cultural-based activities in Morrow County are now being accepted. Projects supported in the past have included quilting, art displays, historical library books, cultural entertainment and events, kids' activities, drama and musical workshops. Grants can be awarded for up to 50% of the total project cost. For complete guidelines and application forms, contact Jaylene Papineau at 541-676-5630 or jpapineau@co.morrow.or.us or visit www.co.morrow.or.us/clerk and scroll down
