

Still time to practice a new art

Go! staff

Summer may be waning, but there's still time to learn a new artistic skill at art centers in Eastern Oregon. Here's a look at what's coming up in August.

Pendleton Center for the Arts PENDLETON

The center is offering free, drop-in classes at Pioneer Park, 400 NW Despain Ave. Each week features a new project, and many focus on creative re-use of materials. Participants are asked to bring a mask. For information, visit www.pendletonarts.org or call 541-310-7413.

- Free for All (age 12 and younger): Saturdays, 9:30-10:15 a.m., Pioneer Park; free.
- Hip & Handmade (age 18 and older): Saturdays, 10:30 a.m., Pioneer Park; free.

Art Center East LA GRANDE

The center is busily putting together in-person classes, to be held at ACE, 1006 Penn Ave., as well as online classes. For updates, visit www.artcentereast.org or call 541-624-2800. In the meantime, try an artist-designed Take & Make Art Kit, for both youth and adults.

Go to www.artcentereast.org/learn/classes/take-make-art-kits, choose one or more, then select local pick-up, local delivery (within La Grande City limits) or domestic shipping.
