LAST WALLOWOLOGY DISCOVERY WALK OF THE SEASON IS SEPT. 25

WALLOWA COUNTY — Wallowology's free Discovery Walks of the season end Sept. 25. On Fridays, easy to moderate hikes depart from trailheads at 9 a.m. These Discovery Walks are limited to 10 people and pre-registration is required by emailing info@wallowology.org. On Sept. 17, meet at the end of Wallowa Lake Highway 351 for a hike along the BC Falls Trail. On Sept. 24, hike the Hurricane Creek Trail after meeting at the end of Hurricane Creek Road.

The final Saturday Discovery Walk will be on Sept. 25. On Sept. 17 and 25, gather at 9 a.m. in the Wallowa Lake Lodge lobby for a family-friendly nature walk exploring the area around the lake. Pre-registration isn't needed for Saturday walks.

All hikes are guided, led by Judy Swank or Charla Lower. Masks are required. Participants are asked to wear sturdy walking shoes and bring water but leave their dogs at home.
