Edward S. "Ed" Waits
July 28, 1934 - February 13, 2022

Edward S. "Ed" Waits was born on a Saturday, July 28, 1934, to parents Cecil Clenard and Lattie Mae Waits in Panama, Oklahoma.

He passed away at his home in Hermiston, Oregon, Sunday Feb. 13, 2022. He was 87 years old.

He is survived by his three stepdaughters Cheri Lamb, Terri Odoms and Debby Anderson, along with their spouses' children and grandchildren. Siblings Norma Griggs, Cecil Jr. "Pete" Waits and Connie Halsey, as well as their spouses' children and grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Cecil and Lattie, two brothers, Thomas and Richard, as well as his loving wife, Nova.

Ed was raised traveling many places, including Oklahoma, Oregon and Wyoming. He entered the Army while in high school and traveled to many countries overseas. He was honorably discharged from the armed forces of the United States of America on Tuesday Nov. 14, 1961.

He married the love of his life, Nova Waits (Dougherty), on Sunday Jan. 28, 1968. Ed worked in the heavy construction industry like his father and several siblings until an accident occurred in 1975 which cost him the loss of his left arm. Ed and Nova did everything together. Growing in their faith of our Lord Jesus Christ and selling items either by storefront or traveling in their RV, to building their own home in Arizona. In later years, they purchased their home in Hermiston and grew the most magnificent gardens and had many types of fruit trees and vines. They would share with anyone that could use the fresh fruits and vegetables. Ed was well known for his ability to "buy," "sell," or "trade" almost anything. He also gained a wealth of knowledge by spending hours upon hours reading and learning about anything that took his interest at the time. His stories of his life and knowledge as well as funny stories will be missed by many.

A graveside service was held at the Hermiston Cemetery with military honors on Thursday Feb. 17, 2022.
