Douglas Raymond Marlatt
 September 25, 1969-February 20, 2022

Douglas Raymond Marlatt entered this life on September 25, 1969, in Pendleton, Oregon the son of Wilma Lee Bothwell and Wesley Virgil Marlatt Sr. of Heppner. He entered eternal life on February 20, 2022, from his home in Umatilla, Oregon. Graveside service for Douglas will be held in Heppner at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery, at 11 a.m., March 5, 2022.

He was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Umatilla River Ward, Hermiston Oregon Stake. He grew up in Heppner, graduating from Heppner High School in 1988, where he played football, and loved learning. He was a life-long learner and was an avid history buff. His friends and family would joke about Douglas being quicker than Google in giving an answer and was thus dubbed Doogle, for his quick mind and accurate memory.

Douglas will be most remembered for his infectious laugh and cunning sense of humor. His nieces and nephews looked to him as the cool uncle who always brought great fireworks and loved to join them in playing video games. He loved bringing smiles to peoples. Whenever he saw something that he thought would bring joy, he would make sure they received it.

Those who loved Douglas, remember him as a kind and giving soul, with the biggest heart, who served everyone. Every family member has fond stories of how he would go out of his way to make their lives easier through his loving service. Douglas was a member of the IBEW local 112 as a material handler. He is remembered as a hard worker who was relentless in accomplishing difficult tasks and staying until the job was complete. He was loved by his fellow co-workers for his wit and will be missed.

Survivors include his father, Wesley V. Marlatt Sr. of Finley, Washington, sister, Melody Marlatt of Santa Ana, California, sister and brother-in-law Rosanna and Joseph Vandacar of Umatilla, brother and sister-in-law Wesley and Sarah-Anne Marlatt of Irrigon, sister and brother-in-law, Lovena and Lee Clinkenbeard of La Grande, sister and brother-in-law, Starla and Larry Lozier of Finley, Washington, sister Alisha Looslie of Pendleton, and 10 adoring nieces and nephews, and 7 great nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his mother, Wilma Marlatt.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements. You may sign the online condolence book at www.sweeinemortuary.com
