EASTERN OREGON — This weekends, parks everywhere will be covered in bright plastic eggs as swarms of children dash for the sweet prizes offered at local Easter egg hunts.

Here's a roundup of events around Eastern Oregon. Happy hunting!

ADAMS

The Community Easter Egg Hunt is on at Adams City Park on Main Street. The free event is Saturday, April 16, at 10 a.m.

BAKER CITY

Geiser-Pollman Park is the place to be on Saturday, April 16, for the community Easter Egg Hunt and All-Kids Shrine Rodeo.

The Baker City Rotary Club organizes the hunt, which starts promptly at 10 a.m. (line up early).

For the first time, the Baker County Shrine Club has moved their popular kids rodeo to the park to coincide with the egg hunt. Participation is free, but registration is required. Pick up a form in advance at the Baker County Chamber of Commerce, 490 Campbell St., or Guyer & Associates, 2790 Main St. On Saturday, registration at the park starts at 9 a.m. Activities start right after the hunt, with organized events beginning at 10:30 a.m. Lunch will be served — it's free for participants and $5 for everyone else.

BOARDMAN

The First Baptist Church invites everyone to participate in an Easter egg hunt Friday, April 15, 3 p.m. at 200 Willow Fork Drive. All ages are welcome, and people don't have to attend the church to join in the fun. For information, call 541-481-9437.

And on Saturday, April 16, head back to Boardman for a couple of Easter egg hunts. The first one starts at 10 a.m. at Boardman Marina Park, 1 Marine Drive NE. It's free and open to children 12 and younger.

Then get ready to take a plunge during the Underwater Easter Egg Hunt. The splashing good time runs from 1-2 p.m. at the Boardman Pool and Recreation Center, 311 NE Olson Road. The event is open to ages 0-17. Participants will be separated by age groups.

Advance registration, which is $5 per child, is required. Parents/guardians must be in the water with children younger than 9 — there is no fee for them. For more information, call 541-616-1050 or email recinfo@boardmanparkandrec.com.

DAYVILLE

The Bunny Hop 5K is Saturday, April 16, with registration starting at 8 a.m. at the Dayville City Park. Entry is $15 per person. The race starts at 9 a.m.

Immediately following the Bunny Hop is an Easter egg hunt at 10:15 a.m. at the Dayville City Park for youth up to sixth grade.

ELGIN

The Elgin Women's Service club's Easter egg hunt is on Saturday, April 16, at Stella Mayfield Elementary School. This year's event begins at 10 a.m. and is for ages 1-10.
