The EOCenes will play Saturday, April 23, at Churchill School in Baker City.

grass band EOCenes will perform live on Saturday, April 23, at Churchill School, 3451 Broadway St. Doors open for the concert at 6 p.m., and the music starts at 6:45 p.m.

Tickets are $10 in advance at www.churchillbaker.com, or $15 at the door. Admission is free for youth age 15 and younger who attend with a ticket-holding adult. Proof of vaccination or a negative COVID test is required. Enter through the 16th Street parking lot.

The EOCenes formed at Eastern Oregon College (now Eastern Oregon University) in La Grande. The musicians were members of the EOC Ambassadors from 1969-1971 and performed concerts around the Northwest as a recruiting program for the college. After graduation, the musicians went their separate ways and played with various bands throughout the years. They reformed as a performance group about 12 years ago.

STAGED READINGS SET FOR APRIL 24

LOSTINE — Fishtrap and MidValley Theatre Company will host "Staged Readings with E.M. Lewis" at 3 p.m. Sunday, April 24, at Lostine's South Fork Grange, 317 Rosewell St. Admission is free, and light refreshments will be provided.

E.M. Lewis is a playwright and writer-in-residence at Fishtrap. Local actors will be reading three pieces out of Lewis' vast repertoire: the new one-act "Dorothy's Dictionary," as well as two shorts, "Drop-Off Day" and "The Last Four Things My Father Held Against Me."

This event, according to Fishtrap, is a return to live theater in Wallowa County. MidValley Theatre Company's mission is to provide high-quality community theater to the county and to offer opportunities for amateur participation in all aspects of theater. Learn more at www.fishtrap.org.
