Also, Downtown District hosts Art Festival

A variety of local products, handcrafted creations and home/garden items are featured as more than 75 vendors are confirmed for the annual Spring Bazaar in Hermiston.

In addition to supporting local artisans, people can pick up some unique items and possibly spark a bit of creativity for their own projects.

Presented by Hermiston Parks and Recreation, the free event is Saturday, May 14, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Hermiston Community Center, 415 S. Highway 395.

Vendor booths are both indoors and outdoors. For more information, call 541-667-5018 or search www.hermiston.or.us/Hermiston-Live.

A vendor sells his wares on May 11, 2019, during the annual Spring Bazaar at the Hermiston Community Center. The 2022 event features both indoor and outdoor vendor booths on Saturday, May 14, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the community center.

After shopping at the community center, head to downtown Hermiston for the 2022 Art Festival. Hosted by the Hermiston Downtown District, the art show and sale runs from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. inside Main Street businesses and on Festival Street. "These events go really well together on a spring

Saturday and take place just a few blocks apart in Hermiston's downtown core," said Brandon Artz, Hermiston Parks and Recreation director. "This gives the community a chance to not only celebrate local art and crafts but to see what's new at locally-owned businesses."

In addition to showcasing local professional and student artists — who will be vying for cash awards — the downtown event includes live entertainment, a story time and a gift basket drawing. For a fee, adults and kids can participate in a painting class presented by Michelle Walchli. Also, those in attendance are invited to cast a vote for the people's choice award.

For questions, call 541-289-1112, search www.facebook.com/Hermiston-downtown or stop by the event's information booth on Festival Street.

IN BRIEF

Betty Feves Memorial Gallery season finale features student show

Blue Mountain Community College invites the public to view and celebrate the creativity of its students.

The opening reception for the annual BMCC Student Art Show is Thursday, May 12, 12:30-2 p.m. The free event is at the Betty Feves Memorial Gallery in Pioneer Hall on BMCC's Pendleton campus, 2411 N.W. Carden Ave.

The family-friendly reception includes food, drinks and an opportunity to vote for people's choice awards. The exhibit continues through June 2. Regular gallery hours are Monday through Thursday, 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

A nonprofit exhibit space, the gallery's namesake, Betty Feves, moved to Pendleton in 1945 and began exhibiting her work in 1952. She became an internationally known ceramic artist and helped mold the work of many artists.

The Arts Council of Pendleton raised money for a commissioned piece by Feves for the Vert Auditorium. She died before it was complete, resulting in utilizing the funds to create a gallery in her memory.

Benefit run/walk supports Worstell scholarship fund

A scholarship fund has been established in the memory of Marissa Worstell. A 2011 Hermiston High School graduate, she was a member of the HHS cross country and track teams. Worstell died Nov. 3, 2020, at the age of 27.

To help raise money for the fund, a benefit run/walk is scheduled for Saturday, May 14, 9 a.m. The registration fee is $25 with 100% of the money raised going to the scholarship fund. It will begin/end at the front entrance at Hermiston High School, 600 S. First St. The event coincides with a celebration of life — on what would have been Worstell's 29th birthday — at 11 a.m. in the HHS Commons.

The Marissa Worstell Path to Change Memorial Scholarship fund is set up through the Hermiston Education Foundation. It will be open to HHS students who show academic or vocational potential and due to their economic circumstances are not able to pay their total college costs.

As a HHS senior, Worstell received the Altrusa Young Citizens Award during the Hermiston Chamber of Commerce Distinguished Citizens Banquet. In addition to academic excellence, Worstell was active in student government, was a member of the Key Club, was crowned the 2010 homecoming queen and participated in many community service activities.

For more information or to register for the run/walk, visit www.raceroster.com/search?q=worstell. For questions, contact Kim Macias at 541-667-7599 or maciaskimberly@outlook.com. In addition, donations to the scholarship fund can be sent to: Hermiston Education Foundation, P.O. Box 1096, Hermiston, OR 97838.
