Paul Melvin Oss

May 17, 1924 - May 11, 2022

Paul Melvin Oss, 97, passed to his rest on May 11, 2022, at Guardian Angel Homes in Hermiston, Oregon, where he had made his home for the past six years. Paul was born May 17, 1924, in Poona, India, the eldest son of missionary parents, Pastor Melvin Oss and Mae Carskadon Oss.

Paul's family returned to the U.S.A. when he was 7 years of age, and he attended elementary schools in Nebraska, Missouri and Colorado. He graduated from high school at the Yakima Valley Academy, Granger, Washington, in 1943. He served as a surgical technician in the U.S. Army from 1948-49 and was honorably discharged from the Army Reserves in 1954. He attended Walla Walla College and Lewis and Clark State College before graduating from the California College of Mortuary Science in 1951.

It was in Lewiston that Paul met the lovely Jeanne Marie Johnson, a church school teacher of grades 1-8 at the Beacon Jr. Academy. At the time, Paul was the handsome son of the Seventh-day Adventist pastor in town. Paul and Jeanne were married in 1950 and made their home in Spokane following his graduation from mortuary college.

Paul had served an apprenticeship at Hazen & Jaeger Funeral Home in Spokane prior to his graduation. A job was awaiting him there when he returned in 1951 as a dedicated mortician/funeral director. For many years, he added a nighttime on-call position to his day job at Hazen & Jaeger to provide for the education of his four children in private Christian schools and for their many years of music lessons. Paul and Jeanne retired to their beloved home on Hayden Lake, Idaho, in 1989, Paul having worked a total of 40 years for the same employer.

Paul was a lifelong and active member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Through the years, he served as a choir member, greeter, deacon and elder. Paul worked his way through college as a roofer and later failed to put away his tool belt or paintbrush for long. He never tired of the ongoing series of projects around his house and was always a willing helper at the homes of family and acquaintances, as well.

Traveling with Jeanne in retirement always brought a smile and fond memories. One summer they left home with the remark, "See you when we see you," and began a 6,000-mile trek from one end of the country to the other, taking in nearly every state and visits with 30-plus relatives along the way.

Most memorable was Paul and Jeanne's family mission trip to India with several of their children, grandchildren and cousins in 2004. There they built two churches in remote villages and were blessed to spend a night at Lasalgoan Mission School, where Paul's missionary parents had served as principal and dean of women/nurse during his childhood years.

Paul was "Grampy" to 10 beloved grandchildren (Victoria, Andrew and Traci Carroll; Nicole and Jennifer Denmark; Patricia Carroll Libby; Joshua, Jacob and Jonas Oltman; Nikki Wiley) and 16 great-grandchildren (Maddox Carroll; Emil Denmark-Adrianvala; Grayson and Lyla Libby; Emma, Bjorn, Kingston, Paxton, Sophia, Anders, Eleanor, Boden, Killian and Espen Oltman; Zoey and Jacy Baldwin). Paul and Jeanne often paired the grandchildren up with a cousin for a week each summer at their home on Hayden Lake.

Games of dominos, swimming across the lake to Honeysuckle Beach, and sipping blackberry milkshakes from Paul Bunyan's Drive-In are treasured memories. Grampy's cheese omelets, potato salad, coleslaw and root beer floats could never be beat in his grandchildren's eyes.

Paul is survived by his children, Guy and Paula Oss Oltman of Hermiston; Patricia Oss Carroll of Blanchard, Idaho; Steven and Karen Oss Denmark of Silver Spring, Maryland; John Oss and Greg Nagy of Spokane.

In addition to his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, Paul leaves behind four nieces and nephews, Ronald and Kelly Oss, Muriel Sar, and Kay Wilson. He was preceded in death by his wife of 68 years (Jeanne Oss), by his parents, younger brother (Donald Oss); and a darling granddaughter, Jennifer Denmark.

Paul is particularly remembered for his kindness, helpfulness, hard work ethic, generosity, loyalty, and undying love for God and family. His family eagerly awaits that day when their dearest dad and Grampy will arise from the grave to see his Savior coming in the clouds. Jesus will welcome Paul into the heavenly home He has prepared with these words: "Well done, my good and faithful servant ... Enter into the joy of your Lord."

The Oss family wishes to express special thanks to the staff of Guardian Angel Homes for their many years of treating "Papa" with the utmost love and care. A graveside service is planned at the Fairmount Memorial Gardens in Spokane on Friday, May 20, at 9 a.m. A memorial service follows in Hermiston on Saturday, May 21, at 2 p.m. in the Guardian Angel Homes parlor (Rose Arbor House).

Burns Mortuary in Hermiston and Spokane Valley Hazen & Jaeger Funeral Home kindly made the arrangements. Memorial contributions may be made to Camp Mivoden; c/o Upper Columbia

Conference of SDA; 3715 S. Grove Road, Spokane, WA 99224-6090.
