The farmers are looking pretty bright. The snow melted so slowly that the resulting moisture was almost all absorbed by the soil before it could run off, and subsequent rain is soaking down for future use.

W. G. Scott was down last week from his Willow Creek sawmill. He says log-ging has been very good this winter, and consequently has accumulated a large supply of logs already for the coming season's run.

The BUDGET doesn't want to shout too soon, but the prospects just now are certainly first-class for the farmers, and if the season continues as favorable as it has commenced, there'll be a smashing big crop this year.

A masquerade ball is announced to take place at Ione on Friday evening of next week. From the preparations being made for the ball and supper it is ex-pected that there will be a large attendance and a jolly good time.
