LOCAL NEWS

F. E. Mason went to Portland Tuesday.

"Pat" Patterson is on the sick list this week.

W. F. Barnett was an lone visitor Saturday last.

Miss Grace Farmer returned from Portland Monday.

N. A. Leach spent a few hours in this city last Friday.

M. F. Parker and wife have moved into their new residence.

A. K. Fuller and P. M. Christenson were Heppner visitors Tuesday.

C. P. Barnett, of Pendleton, was a Lexington visitor Saturday last.

True friendship does not care for a "card of thanks" in the newspaper.

J. V. Grimes and wife returned from Portland the latter part of last week.

C. T. Davis, who has been attending the Exposition the past week, returned Monday.

The Wheatfield family is under obligations to J. H. Helms for a lot of nice apples last week.

James Fry has completed this seasons run with his threshing machine and pulled in Tuesday.

SCHOOL NOTES

No examinations were held in the advanced division as the work was so incomplete the first month on account of the changes being made.

Those averaging 90 or above from the intermediate department were:

Maudie McMillan	Pearl Reaney
Frank Burgoyne	Anna Leach
Mable Davis	Mable Boon

PRIMARY DEPARTMENT

Cecil Scott	Albina Leach
Park Carmichael	Abbie Johnson
Roy Fuller	Arnold Piper
Grace Reaney	Inis Tyler
Leona Leach	Leona Davis
Katy Eskelson	Georgia Fuller
Frank Bengé	Hobert Johnson

The seats came last Friday and the new room is now in use; new blackboards have been put in the rooms and dustine has been used on the floors. Dustless crayon is now used on the blackboards. The school board has provided the school with all these conveniences this year. It will not be the schoolboard's fault if Lexington's school is not as good as any.

The special class has an enrollment of six. This class is for the benefit of those who have not had the opportunity to attend school very much. We would be glad to have more attend as we think we can help you some if you wish to better your education.
