CHAFF FROM THE STRAW STACK

Yes, honesty is the best policy, even in public office.

Senator Martin of Virginia reports that it cost him $1,542.02 to be re-elected.

"We sleep too much" says Edison. Is this another case of race suicide? Have a baby in the house Thomas.

Spending your money as fast as you make it is foolish. Spending it faster than you make it is financial genius.

George Gould declares that the future looks bright. George probably has his coal in the cellar and paid for.

The "beef trust" is sending carloads and shiploads of beef to the Philippines—it seems that "beef" follows the flag.

"Shall I brain him?" cried a Hazer, and the victims courage fell. "You can't, it's a freshmen. Just hit him on the head."

A Texas paper is calling on the government to curb the trusts. Bless you, brother, the trusts are curbing the government first.

Persons who began wondering if half Lawson said about the insurance companies was true are now wondering if he told half the truth.

Life is a problem. If you stay at home all summer you envy those who went away; if you go away you envy those who stayed at home.

A California paper says bad water kills as many people as bad whisky does. Well, we don't have to buy the water by the glass, any way.

The world would be an ideal place to pass an existence if we were only all paid what we think we are worth—and then actually earned the money.

A New York man sold his wife for $5,000. Of course if that establishes a price married men, as a whole, are richer than they supposed they were.

Twenty two murders were committed in Chicago during the month of August. Perhaps there were one or two in other parts of the world during the same time.

It is gravely announced at the navy department that an additional supply of water was needed at West Point. There are other army points where an additional consumption of water would prove beneficial.

Bill had a billboard. Bill also had a board bill. The board bill bored Bill so that Bill sold the billboard to pay his board bill. So after Bill sold his billboard to pay his board bill the board bill no longer bored Bill.

A strange case is reported from a neighboring town. A lady was taken ill and the physician was called, who, after a few days treatment, was unable to name the complaint or the cause of illness and the patient growing weaker a consulting physician was called but no agreement was reached. In a short time afterward the patient died and the physicians making an examination to determine the cause of death found the stomach completely covered with lint. Their decision was that her death was caused by "chewing the rag."

The Wheatfield has just completed arrangements with the Oregon Journal whereby we are able to furnish the Oregon Daily Journal, including the Sunday issue, and The Wheatfield, one year $7. The Daily Journal and Wheatfield one year $5. The Semi-Weekly Journal and The Wheatfield one year $1.75.
