PAT'S BARBER SHOP

J. E. GENTRY, Proprietor.

FIRST CLASS SHAVING AND HAIRCUTTING

Agent for Cresent Steam Laundry

Shop one door west Lexington Bank

LEXINGTON.

OREGON.

OF SOFT SOFT SOFT SOFT OF THE W.P. McMILLAN

Drugs

Stationery

Confections

School Supplies

Joilet Articles

Etc. Etc.

LEXINGTON.

OREGON

READ THE WHEATFIELD

そうとうこういっとうとうとうとう

Chas. H. Breshears DEALER IN

WOOD AND POSTS

YARDS AT DEPOT

LEXINGTON.

OREGON

F. H. ROBINSON ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW

NOTARY PUBLIC Practice in all Courts. Legal business given prompt and careful attention. Land

Contests, Probate Work and Conveyancing a specialty.

IONE,

C. C. CHICK, M. D. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON

Diseases of Women and Children a specialty. Calls answered promptly Day or Night.

Office in Drug Store.

Residence in Boothby property.

LEXINGTON,

ORECON

W. J. DAVIS

CONTRACTER & BUILDER

Estimates Furnished

OREGON Lexington,

THE WHEATFIELD

ONE YEAR

ONE DOLLAR

PRINTS ALL THE NEWS

LOCAL NEWS

"A Wife's Secret" in this issue. Leach Bro's have a change of ad in this issue.

Who said Lexington was to have a station agent.

Mrs. W. B. McAlister is on the sick list this week.

Now is the best time to subscribe for The Wheatfield.

Read" A Wife's Secret", a new serial story starts in this issue.

B. F. Thompson, of Strawberry was in Lexington Tuesday last. Miss Lottie Davis went to Heppner last Saturday returning Sunday. Rye for sale at $1.60 per 100 JOE ESKELSON.

Barley wanted at the Lexington flouring mills. Highest market prices

Don't forget the entertainment in the Congregational church, Thursday eve, Nov. 9th.

Glenn Davis received a bad sprain of the ankle, last Friday, while play ing football at school.

There has been several cases of mumps, in a very mild form, in and around Lexington, recently.

Lawrence Reaney had the misfortune to break an arm, while playing football, at school last Thursday.

Bills are out announcing a mask ball for tomorrow, Friday evening, November 3rd. Everybody invited.

J. E. Gentry is having lumber hauled for a new barber shop to be erected on his lot near White's blacksmith

Mrs. Elisa Totzauer, has opened daessmaking parlors in the Doherty hotel building. See her ad in this

A Phonograph makes a splendid Christmas present for the children. Call at the Wheatfield Printery and place an order for one.

Mrs. C. R. McAlister, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at Heppner last week, is expected home the latter part of this week.

Mrs. W. B. McAlister and son, Marshall, went to Heppner last Sunday for a few hours visit with Mrs. C. R. McAlister, who is in the hospital

L. R. Bechtel, who has been the guest of his brother, A. D. Bechtel, the past two months, departed last Saturday for his home at Irwin,

Quarterly conference will be held in the M. E. church south, in Lexington, Dan P. Doherty, of Pendleton, past week. Mr. Doherty says Lexington looks good to him and that he may return here in the near future.

All my accounts have been left W. P. McMillan for collection. All those knowing themselves indebted to me will call there and make settlement. DR. C. C. CHICK.

Miss Iona White, who has been conducting millinery parlors at Arling ton, closed her store there last week and removed the stock to Lexington where she will open first class millinery parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ferguson and Heppner Tuesday, where Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Clark will enter the hospital for operations, the former for ap- time 'lost' by travelers in waiting for pendictis and the latter to have a tumor removed.

has been made by the Principal of our play football without the consent of their parents or gurdians. We think this a sensible ruling and should be Heppner Junction. adhered to all cases.

pleasant caller at Wheatfield head- the Congregational church is this city. quarters had Saturday. Mr. Finley is A sensorhable program to furnished one of the prominent sheepmen of this by these diminitive, but talested little

This Space Reserved For W. G. SCOTT & CO. Lexington, Oregon.

Eric Lindegren

PAINTER

PAPER HANGER

AND DECORATER

Lexington,

Oregon

っしっしっしっしっしっしっしっしっしっしっしっ LEXINGTON MEAT MARKET

J. V. GRIMES, Proprietor

FRESH AND SALT MEATS

SAUSAGES AND LARD

FISH IN SEASON LEXINGTON, OREGON.

and will, in a very few years, be the of recital, song, cantata and tableaux. best town on the branch.

The boys at the warehouse are kick ing on account of having to loose time on account of the U. P. trains being late east of Denver. We hope soon to have a line of automobiles to connect this part of the country with the N. P. at Irrigon or Castle Rock, so that the men can work and not compell the warehouse company to spend good money buying coal to keep the men

Mary had a little lamb, that time on the second Saturday and Sunday has passed away. No lamb could in November, instead of the third as follow up the gait that Mary goes today. For now she rides on air shod wheeles in skirts too short by half; no lamb spent several days in Lexington the kin shares her airy flight, but you can see her calf. But is there one who can complain or cry in woe, "Alas!" so long as Mary's calf's all right the lamb can go to grass. So all the men delight to gaze, their joy is not a sham, for while the other criter's out they have no use for lamb.

Congress and all state legislative bodies, should enact that all railway companies in the United States be compelled to carry all officials, federal state and local on passes, when traveling on official business. Further, agents of all railways should be compell ed to schedule all belated trains, at all Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Clark went to stations where delayed, for the benefit of waiting passengers. It is estimated that up to October 1st, this year, trains, reached the enormous aggregate of $978,000,000,000,000,000.00. We understand that a new ruling Something must be done to stop this LEXINGTON. woeful waste. Central Oregonians school, that will not permit scholars to have turned in $13,000,000,000 at Biggs.-Moro Observer.

And just about $13,000,000,013 at

On Thursday evening next the Lilli-W. B. Finley, of Strawberry. was a putians will give an entertainment in county and thinks Lexingtor is alright ladies, the Misses Adams, consisting The numbers of their program are so varied in character and so artistically presented that there is not a dull moment from the beginning to the end. The children are delighted; everybody is instructed and amused.

Aside from the literary and artistic merit of the entertainment, the modest and charming personality of the Adams Sisters makes them favorites wherever they go. The two little ladies, only 46 and 49 inches in height respectfully, about the size of the average boy or girl of four or five years.

The Boston Times says of them: The Lilliputian Sisters (Misses Lucy and Sarah Adams) gave a charming entertainment. The program consisted of song, duets, dialogues, recitations and posings especially adapted to the performers. Applause was enthusiastic and complimentary remarks were heard on every hand.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Notice is hereby given that bids will be received until November 15th, 1905, by the School Board of District No. 18, for the erection of a School House, according to plans and specifications to be prepared by said School Board.

Address all communications and inquir-B. F. THOMPSON, School Clerk. Strawberry, Oregon.

B. M. BOOHER TRANSFERRING

REASONABLE CHARGES OREGON

Congregational Church

Preaching service at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. every third and fifth Sunday of each month. Sunday School 2.30 p. m. every Sunday.

Rev. J. L. Jones, Pastor.

Get Your Name on

The Wheatfield List