CHAFF FROM THE STRAW STACK

When a baldheaded man has dandruff, that is rubbing it in.

It is one thing to appreciate a compliment and another thing to swallow it.

Might make right—but the burglar's jimmy didn't keep him out of prison.

Procrastination is the thief of time, but the man who leaped before he looked doesn't believe it.

There are two people who are sure to laugh at a man's jokes; his sweetheart and his grandmother.

A woman never used powder that a man didn't notice it, but woman says, "Men are SO easily fooled!"

It is said that some of Lexington's young hens and roosters get on the roost poles rather early.

Really and truly it is disgraceful how quickly the average widow braces up and begins to get better looking.

When a man spends too much of his time loafing around talking to a girl, whose fault is it, his or the girl's?

Charity begins at home—but some people are mistaken in thinking there is a law compelling it to stay there.

About the most disconsolate looking woman we know anything about, is the woman who holds the team while her husband does the "trading" in a saloon.

When a young man spends his money freely, two choruses go up: That from old woman of "How foolish!" and that from young women of "How generous!"

EQUAL SUFFRAGE

Arrangements have been made with the State Association to publish their communications on this subject.—Ed.

In Seattle, last month on the question of issuing $500,000 worth of school bonds, only 844 men voted. There are some people who would say that it was plain that the vast majority of the men of Seattle "didn't want to vote", and that, therefore, all the men of Seattle should be denied the right to vote, that is they would say so if they were consistent, for they deny the ballot to women on the ground that "women do not want it", and they base their assertion that women do not want it on the fact that in those states women have merely school suffrage, only a minority of women vote in the election of school trustees. Let them look to the states where women have equal rights with men and they will find that women vote as generally as do men. The Wyoming Secretary of State reports that 90 per cent of the women of Wyoming vote. Former Governor Steunenberg, of Idaho, and Senators Patterson and Teller, of Colorado, are authorities for the statement that women vote as generally as do men in Idaho and Colorado, and universal testimony from Utah is that similar conditions obtain in that state. That women vote where they have full political rights, is the best evidence that they want to vote.
