

LEXINGTON WHEATFIELD

VOL. I

LEXINGTON, OREGON, THURSDAY NOVEMBER 23, 1905

NO. 9

OUR CHRISTMAS GOODS

Are arriving every day, and will be open for inspection about December 5th. Our stock comprising Toys, Notions, Knit Goods, Cutlery, Guns, Carpets and Lamps, in fact the strongest and most complete line ever shown in Morrow county.

SPECIAL

A fine lot of Glass Ware, take your choice for 10 cents each. A 4 piece set, Sugar, Butter and Jar for 40 cents, others ask 75 cents.

Call and see our Silverware and Carving Sets, they will make an elegant gift for Thanksgiving.

DON'T OVERLOOK

We carry Wagons, Vehicles, Plows, Harrows, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Shoes, Trunks, Crockery, Harness, Carpets, Lace Curtains and an entire car of canned goods arrived Monday of the following: Corn, Tomatoes, Salmon, Oysters, Fruits and Condensed Milk. We are here with the Goods, Quality and Prices. Let us figure with you.

SPECIAL ON TABLE CATSUP

A large pint bottle for 15 cents. We only have 10 cases to close at this price.

LEACH BROTHER'S

LEXINGTON,

OREGON

CHAFF FROM THE STRAW STACK

Politics is pretty quiet this fall. Cheer up. Winter last six months yet.

Money may buy popularity but the market fluctuates.

Always look on the bright side of life and don't grumble.

It's along about time to put on your winter underwear.

Anyway the Wheatfield will continue to be your local paper.

When is a man drunk? When he has drunk too much, of course.

If you are chilly, tickle the coal man a little and you will get warm.

Between a scandal monger and a grafter there is mighty little choice.

This chilly weather makes a man feel that it is a long time between drinks.

The soda fountain sighs and frets.

Its saddest days are here.

"Out of a job!" the spigots sob

And shed an icy tear.

We are what we make ourselves and whether or not we are loved and esteemed depends upon our own conduct.

The life you live today is tomorrow's memory. Make the record as beautiful as you can, if only for the sake of your own comfort.

A Virginia court has fixed the price of a kiss at $20, showing that there has been no decrease in the cost of the necessities of life.

A woman always argues on both sides of a thing her husband is going to do, so that whichever way it comes out she can say "I told you so."

Willie's aunt took him out to luncheon. Wanting the butter, he said: "Hand me the butter." "If what, Willie?" "If you can reach it."

If women never do anything worse than make themselves sweet to look upon and delightful to behold, no word of criticism shall ever come their way.

A man can seldom rely on his friends to tell him when to grasp an opportunity, but they never fail to chide him for his lack of foresight afterwards.

The youth no more the ice cream sign

Doth dodge in every place;

But now the oyster sign is up

And stares him in the face.

There is an old axiom that says, he that lives on love deserves to die in a ditch. "The man from Missouri" says he never yet has seen a man do either.

SCHOOL NOTES

A high school girl gave her father the following sentence to punctuate "A five dollar bill flew around the corner." "Well" he said "I simply put a period after it like this." "I wouldn't" said the girl "I'd make a dash after it."

Considerable sickness has noticeably decreased the attendance this week.

The present nice weather has made the conditions very favorable for Basket Ball. Two outfits are being used, one by the girls and one by the boys. The school boys will try a turn with the town and hope to give a fair account of themselves.

Hard work at practice is being done by the pupils preparing for the entertainment Friday night. The play is exceedingly funny and if you want a good laugh come and see it.