LOCAL NEWS

A. M. Zink has moved into town for the winter.

Olen Hoddsden has a sister from Missouri as his guest this week.

A Phonograph makes a splendid Christmas present for the children. Call at the Wheatfield Printery and place an order for one.

Mrs. C. B. Purdy, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. A. Thomas, the past two weeks, returned to her home in Portland yesterday.

All my accounts have been left W. P. McMillan for collection. All those knowing themselves indebted to me will call there and make settlement.
Dr. C. C. Chick.

L. A. Purdy and The Wheatfield man spent last Saturday and Sunday in Arlington, renewing old acquaintances and endeavoring to stop the flight of some of the geese that are so plentiful in that locality.

We have the agency for the Ediso Phonograph and Records. If you contemplate buying a phonograph, call and get our prices. We can and do sell them as cheap as the large mail order houses, besides saving some freight.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE.

Arrangements have been made with the State Association to publish their communications on this subject—Ed.

I defy any man who prizes his right to vote to give any good reason why the average, intelligent, conscientious, law-abiding and tax paying woman has not the same equitable right to a voice in the government that he insists upon having. There is not one of the tenets of our theory of government which justifies man's claim to recording at the polls his will as a free man, which does not guarantee in theory the right of every free woman to record her will at the polls.

I once saw a dozen ladies undertake to exercise what they had been advised was their right. The inspectors refused to receive their votes and the ladies quietly turned away. While the discussion was going on, an old pauper stood by, intently interested in the proceedings. His large family had been a charge upon the town for years. These very women had given of their time and money to preserve that family from cold and starvation; had paid taxes year after year to enable the poormaster to honor the drafts of the old pauper to keep him alive through the winter. And yet as those ladies turned sadly away with their ballots still in their hands, the face of the besotted old brute was wreathed in smiles. He had been declared their superior before the law. All their knowledge, their piety, their philanthropy, their ardent patriotism, went for naught in the scale, when weighed against the attribute that he was a male. No depth of a mental, moral or physical degradation could disfranchise him. No height of learning, refinement, loving service to humanity or peril for their country, could by any possibility enfranchise them. And when I saw that old wretch laugh and realized the outrageous injustice of the law, I decided that while I had a voice and a vote, they should be given at every opportunity to terminate that wrong.

Hon. Louis McKinstry.
