LOCAL NEWS

The rain and snow of the past week makes the farmers smile. Prospects were never better for a bountiful harvest.

The Electric Light Co. have decided to give an allnight service instead of shutting down at 12 o'clock as originally intended.

Deputy Sheriff, W. O. Hill and wife, of Heppner, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Hill's sister, Mrs. C. A. Johnson and family.

A Phonograph makes a splendid Christmas present for the children. Call at the Wheatfield Printery and place an order for one.

Ross Everett, Ed. Nelson, B. B. Tutweilder and Chas. Earhart came up from lone yesterday to attend the opening of the Lane & Inskeep saloon.

Personal items of local interest will be appreciated if sent to The Wheatfield. Assist us to get the news and we will assist in building up the town and county.

All my accounts have been left W. P. McMillan for collection. All those knowing themselves indebted to me will call there and make settlement.
DR. C. C. CHICK.

The Thanksgiving dance last Thursday evening was a grand success. The prizes for the best lady and gentleman waltzers were awarded to Ben Green and Miss Laura Conner.

If you cannot find what you want in the Drug line try Davidson Bros, of lone, they carry the largest stock of Drugs and Chemicals in Morrow Co. Mail and Telephone orders promptly attended to.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Doherty took charge of the Beymer Hotel the first of the month and have newly finished the house throughout, making the Beymer second to none in this part of the country.

We have the agency for the Edison Phonograph and Records. If you contemplate buying a phonograph, call and get our prices. We can and do sell them as cheap as the large mail order houses, besides saving some freight.

The Wheatfield family is under obligations to the Swede Canyon Poultry Farm, for a fine fat chicken for our Thanksgiving dinner. The proprietor, P. M. Christenson, is making a specialty of raising high grade chickens.

A kiss is a peculiar proposition. Of no use to one yet absolute bliss to two. The small boy gets it for nothing. The young man has to steal it, and the old man has to buy it. The baby's right, the lovers privilege, the hypocrites mask. To a maiden, faith, to a married woman, hope, to an old maid, charity.

The Heppner city election resulted in a victory for the Citizens ticket. Following is the vote:

For Mayor, O. E. Farnsworth 125; Frank Gilliam 135. For Councilmen, Geo Aiken 111; S. Garrigues 136; J. C. Kirk 133; W. O. Miner 160; D. A. McAtee 109; Frank Roberts 128. For Recorder, W. A. Richardson 70; J. P. Williams 102; Geo. Whiteis 79. For Treasurer, L. W. Briggs 187.

John N. Helms and Miss Maud Brashears were married Thursday, November 30th, at the home of Nat Gray, on Strawberry flat. Rev. J. C. White officiating. Mr. Helms is one of Lexington's enterprising men and is well and favorably known by all.

The bride is a daughter of W. W. Brashears, of McKinley, Missouri, came to this country about 6 months ago. The Wheatfield joins their many friends in wishing them along and prosperous journey through life.

Last Tuesday was the annual Town election and the following is the result of the vote:

For Mayor:
W. G. Scott	16
W. Barnett	15
E. A. Pointer	1
C. R. McAllister	3
A. K. Fuller	1
