CHAFF FROM THE STRAW STACK

A good round steak makes a square meal.

It isn't hard for a borrowed umbrella to keep lent.

People who go to sea are not always shown.

The model husband is not the modern one.

A St. Paul paper says the turkey is like a trust—he is a gobbler.

The largest workman's wages in Berlin are paid to masons—$1.90 to $2.14 a day for piece work.

The noise of digging on the Panama canal is not loud enough to drown the talk of how and how not to dig it.

Half honesty won't answer, you must be honest all the way through, or your little tricks will be accepted as downright dishonesty.

One of our citizens was complaining of rheumatism. There is no excuse for you being afflicted, said a friend. "I used to have rheumatism and when it would strike me I would go home and have my wife throw her arms around my neck and give me a massage treatment. It helped me every time. You ought to try it." "I will," said the man, "when will I find your wife at home."

As we have seen it stated, man's business requires haste. The average man eat in a hurry and gets appoplexy. He talks in a hurry and says too much. He does business in a hurry and goes broke. He reads in a hurry and is superficial. He votes in a hurry and produces corruption. He marries in a hurry and gets a divorce. He trains his children in a hurry and hurries them into evil ways. He get religion in a hurry and forgets it in a hurry. He makes his will in a hurry and leaves a legal contest. He dies in a hurry and goes to the devil, and his tribe increases.

SOME MEDICAL ADVICE

(By One Who Knows)

The best thing for an appetite is something to eat.

By practicing sleeping an average of eight hours a night for a week or two insomnia can be quickly cured.
