LOCAL NEWS

The O. R. & N Co., so we understand have decided to put an agent at Lexington in the near future. The trains have been running on time of late and we are glad to note this decision on their part.

C. E. Musgrave and wife accompanied by Mrs. Winnett, Mrs. Musgraves' mother, came in from Strawberry yesterday. Mrs. Musgrove and mother will leave today for Dayton, Wash., to spend the holidays.

Don't expect too much of us this week in the way of news. We have tried several places to secure a printer, but could not find an idle one any place and we have been extremely busy installing the new electric light plant.

The box social next Saturday evening is free to all. After the program the boxes will be auctioned to the highest bidder. Don't fail to attend as an enjoyable time is awaiting you. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the school.

Thos. Lee, who has been attending school in Portland, is home for the holidays. Mr. Lee brought a box of beautiful cut flowers home with him and presented them to one of Lexington's young ladies. This looks to us like a wedding in the near future.

The Wheatfield has just completed arrangements with the Oregon Journal whereby we are able to furnish the Oregon Daily Journal, including the Sunday issue, and The Wheatfield, one year $7. The Daily Journal and Wheatfield one year $5. The Semi-Weekly Journal and The Wheatfield one year $1.75.

Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on January 13, 1906, before W. B. McAlister, a U. S.
