The Oregon Journal has made arrangements to publish the letters of W. J. Bryan in its Sunday issue. Mr. Bryan is on a two year tour of foreign lands, and his letters will make excellent reading, as Mr. Bryan is a brilliant writer. The Sunday Journal is a great newspaper, filled with all the good things of newspaperdom.

STRAWBERRY

School began in our school house Monday January 8th and is running nicely.

Nathan Musgrave has moved into the property of his brother Henry and will be handy to school.

B. A. McCormick, the carpenter, finished our school house Saturday and is ready to turn it over to the district.

The box supper at Strawberry school house was a complete success, not with standing the bad weather. The net proceeds were $35.65.

James M. White bid farewell to his parents and friends and started for Missouri Thursday, where he will make his future home. May God be with him until we meet again.

Mr. Sibley went to lone last Friday and brought in the last of the lumber for the new school house. The house will soon be completed and ready for school, and we will have a neat little school house.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior,
United States Land Office

The Dalles, Oregon, December 26, 1905.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Benjamin F. White, contestant, against homestead entry No. 7552, made July 29, 1899, for E 1/2 SE 1/4, Sec. 8, S 1/2 SW 1/4, Section 9, Township 1, N. Range 26, E. W. M., by William J. Whyte, Contestee, in which it is alleged that said William J. Whyte does not now reside on nor has he cultivated or caused to be cultivated any part of said land; nor has he any house or any improvements whatever; he has wholly abandoned said land for more than six months last past; that said alleged absence was not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war. Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on February 15, 1906, before W. B. McAllister, a U. S. Commissioner at his office in Lexington, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on February 22, 1906, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in The Dalles, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed December 8, 1905, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
