B. A. McCORMICK.

DIED—At his home near Strawberry, Wednesday, February 14, 1906, B. A. McCormick, aged 65 years, 1 month and 11 days.

B. A. McCormick was born in Indiana, January 4, 1841 where he resided for 26 years. At the age of 23 he was married. In 1867 he moved to Illinois where he lived until 1882 when he moved to Missouri and resided there until the 22nd day of last October when he moved to Morrow county.

He enlisted with the union forces during the rebellion and served with honor to himself and country. At the age of 19 years he became a member of the Baptist church and lived a christian life doing what he thought was right and honorable in his daily walks through life and died believing in the Lord.

B. A. McCormick was a member of the I. O. O. F. who took charge of the funeral after a fitting discourse was delivered in the Congregational church by Rev. J. C. White, of Strawberry, who had been intimately acquainted with Mr. McCormick for a number of years. At the cemetery the services were conducted by the I. O. O. F. lodge and the soul was consigned to God who gave it and the body lain to rest in Mother Earth.

When the members had returned to their lodge room a purse of $25.25 was taken up and presented to the family to assist in defraying the funeral expenses.

On Wednesday, February 14th Mr. McCormick came to Lexington and on the road home with a load of wood, while attempting to use the brake he was thrown under the wheels which passed over his chest and head and seriously injured him. He seemed to be improving and was able to be out of bed a few days before his death, yet he was injured internally which caused his death.

He was the father of ten children, five of whom survive him.

The Wheatfield joins his host of friends in expression of genuine sorrow for the bereaved widow and children.
