The crop outlook for the coming season is the best in the history of the county. Grain is in splendid condition and from all reports there is an increase of about thirty five per cent in acreage over last year.

We have a good second hand Dutchman Plow, 12 inch three bottom run two seasons, will put new shares and landsides on it and sell on fall terms at $42.50, a snap, or we will sell for less without the third bottom.

A petition to Hon. E. L. Smith, of Hood River, asking him to run for Governor on the Republican ticket, was circulated in Lexington the latter part of last week and received a number of signatures. Mr. Smith can be nominated and elected, and would give the state a good administration.

The revival meeting in the Congregational church are attracting good crowds. Mr. Miller is a forceful talker and his chalk talks to the school children are very instructive. Many who would like to hear him are prevented from attending on account of severe colds and coughs, as he says a coughing audience is very annoying to him.

County clerk Crawford turned over the 1905 tax roll to Sheriff Shutt for collection on the 23rd inst. The total amount of the roll is $69,670.50. The county levy of 23 mills gives $55,347.43. This is distributed as 2 1-2 mills State tax, 11 1-2 mills county tax, 5 mills school tax and 4 mills county roads. 19 school districts have a special tax with levies ranging from 1 mill to 25 mills. The roll carries $11,431.00 as special school tax. The city of Heppner has a special tax of 7 mills which gives $2,170.67, and the City of Ione has a special tax of 10 mills which gives $721.38. The O. R. & N. Co. tax is $12,141.49. J. A. Woolery of Ione is the largest individual taxpayers of the county. His tax is $948.62. Among other large taxpayers are The Penland Land & Livestock Co $2,058.89, Antone Vey $736.94, Anson Wright $649.92, First National Bank of Heppner $1,520.00, C. T. Walker $701.91, Minor & Co. $612, Thos Quaid $513.75. A rebate of 3 per cent is allowed on full payment of taxes up to and including March 15. Taxes become delinquent after April 2, 1906, if one-half payment is made before April 2, the taxpayer is allowed until the first Monday in October to pay the last half. Delinquents are charged 10 per cent penalty and 12 per cent interest.

SCHOOL NOTES

The school clerk has been taking the school census the past week and a noticeable increase in the number of pupils between the ages of four and twenty.

Mr. Miller addressed the school last Friday, and this week the school has made arrangements to close at half past three and attend the chalk talks at the Congregational church. All are much interested in these talks and many a valuable lesson may be learned from them.

The exercises in Miss Scotts room by the pupils of the room was well attended and much enjoyed by all.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of The Interior
United States Land Office
The Dalles, Oregon, February 20, 1906.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by James McCabe, contestant, against homestead entry No. 12106, made February 11, 1903, for SE 1/4 NE 1/4, E 1/2 SW 1/4, Section 34, Township 2, N., Range 25, E. W. M. by Patrick McCabe, Contestee, in which it is alleged that said entryman has wholly abandoned said land and has failed to live upon and cultivate said land as required by law; that the only improvements he has made upon said land is a shack of a cabin which is not habitable at any time of the year; that said alleged absence has existed for more than six months last past; that said alleged absence was not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war. Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 12, 1906, before Vawter Crawford, County clerk at his office in Heppner, Oregon, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on April 19, 1906 before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in The Dalles Oregon. The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed February 20, 1906, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
