Gen. John H. Aitkin of Eastern Oregon, has announced himself as a candidate for state treasurer before the republican primaries. Location and qualification gives to General Aitkin a strong lead for the nomination. It seems conceded that this nomination should go to Eastern Oregon. Mr. Aitkin has all the peculiar qualifications for the office—Lebanon Criterion.

The Great Eastern Vitagraph and Elite Comedy Co. showed Tuesday and Wednesday evening in Artisan hall to small but appreciative audiences; The Moving pictures and illustrated songs were good and well received. Clark and Freeman the "rag time boomers" were the main features of the entertainments. Clark is a whirlwind and Freeman is not slow. Mrs. Grosbeck, the Contralto Singer and buck and wing dancer was appreciated by all.

Mr. Arthur K. Fuller, formerly one of Sherman county's successful farmers, but now of Morrow county, is a candidate for the Republican nomination of Sheriff of Morrow county. Mr. Fullers reputation is of the "square deal" kind; and Morrow county can not do better than elect such men to office. Mr. Fuller's many friends in Sherman county will be pleased to hear of his success; in receiving the nomination, which is equivalent to an election.—Wasco News.

About 4 o'clock last Tuesday afternoon fire was discovered in the residence property occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Orrville Brown. The alarm was given and the Volunteer fire company responded promptly. The fire started in the sitting room and was caused by an overheated stove. Mrs. Brown was in the kitchen and hearing an unusual roaring in the sitting room went in to see what caused it, on opening the door she discovered the entire room in flames. Her little daughter was in the room when the fire started and becoming frightened went into the bed room and crawled under the bed instead of alarming her mother. The property belonged to the Gentry estate and the damage amounting to about $200 is fully covered by insurance. Mr. Brown carried no insurance on his household goods and his loss will amount to about $100.
