SENTENCE SERMONS
By Henry F. Cope.

More people are ridiculous on account of assumed virtues than through real faults.

To be under obligations to a bad man is next door to being obliged to be bad.

As soon as the church gets to worrying over the figure it cuts it ceases to cut any figure at all in the world.

A good many churches would be a good deal more prosperous if they had shorter prayers in the pulpit and longer ones in the plate.

The man who is afraid of being first can be sure of one thing, that he will not be last in the list of failures.

Caught Cold While Hunting a Burglar.
Mr. Wm. Thos. Lanorgan, provincial constable at Chapleau, Ontario, says: "I caught a severe cold while hunting a burglar in the forest swamp last fall. Hearing of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, I tried it, and after using two small bottles, I was completely cured." This remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds. It will loosen and relieve a severe cold in less time than by any other treatment and is a favorite wherever its superior excellence has become known. For sale by W. P. McMillan.
