LOCAL NEWS

The Wheatfield prints the news. Constant dropping wears the stone. All the brains are not in one head. Deceit and trickery makes no man rich. All are not friends who smile on you. It is better to be alone than in bad company.

A good cause make a stout heart and a strong arm. A good politician keeps his own secrets and steals yours. Choose a wife as you choose a knife. Look well to her temper. Quick may be pronounced quicker by adding a syllable to it. Relinquishment on 80 acres of good land for sale—Enquire at this office. A cigar loving man is like a tallow candle. He smokes when he is going out. Your nose and mouth are at continual variance, because words are always passing between them. Get your stationery at the Wheatfield Printery and your business will never become stationary. Do not accustom yourself to swear. There are words enough in the English language sufficiently expressive of all our passions. You may cause idiots to philosophize, may cause donkeys to forego thistles—but do not think of driving common horse sense into the head of a conceited person. Barred Plymouth Rock eggs for hatching. $1 for 15 eggs from the Swede Canyon Poultry Yard. P. M. Christenson, Lexington, Ore. The Wheatfield has just completed arrangements with the Oregon Journal whereby we are able to furnish the Oregon Daily Journal, including the Sunday issue, and The Wheatfield, one year $7. The Daily Journal and Wheatfield one year $5. The Semi-Weekly Journal and The Wheatfield one year $1.75.

I have just received, from Edward B. Grossman & Co., of Chicago, a choice line of spring samples. Ladies' and Misses' Suits, Silk Shirt Waist Suits, Wash Suits, Wash Skirts, Waists, Petticoats. Cloth and Silk Skirts, Jackets and Raincoats. Any one desiring anything in this line will do well to call and look over my samples at The Wheatfield Printery. Mrs. S. A. Thomas.

NOTICE.

All persons who had mares bred by Sir Robert, and have not paid the fees, are requested to deposit the fees with the Bank of Lexington as soon as convenient. 25-1f

The Magic Seed Box.

Procure a large pill box and push the bottom in a little way; then get some gum and stick a small portion of canary or other seed on the bottom so as to make it appear a full box. Obtain a small bag with a little seed in it and pretend to fill the box, but instead of doing so only bring out a little seed on the bottom. Afterward rub the loose seed off, and the audience, seeing the seed that is fast on, will naturally think the box is full. Then take the box in the right hand, a cap or hat in the left hand and cover the box and show the empty side. Again cover the box and say: "Presto! Come back!" Turn the box and show the full side.

Homemade Tops.

Take big, empty cotton spools and paint them in bright colors; then pound into them stumps of lead pencils or round sticks, leaving about half an inch at the bottom. Sharpen this into a point, and you have a fine top. If you wish, you can put short, fluffy skirts on the spool and make a tiny hat or bonnet for the part of the pencil that sticks out above, and you will have a ballet dancing top.

Alphabets.

The number of letters contained in the alphabets of the different languages is given here: Russian, 35; English, 26; French, 25; Italian, 20; Spanish, 27; German, 26; Latin, 25; Greek, 24; Arabic, 28; Persian, 32; Hebrew, 22, and Sanscrit, 44.

Rheumatism Makes Life Miserable.

A happy home is the most valuable possession that is within the reach of mankind, but you cannot enjoy its comforts if you are suffering from rheumatism. You throw aside business cares when you enter home and you can be relieved from those rheumatic pains, also by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. One application will give you relief and its continued use for a short time will bring about a permanent cure. For sale by W. P. McMillan.
