A SURE THING. LEXINGTON GROWS

LEXINGTON WHEATFIELD

VOL. I

LEXINGTON, OREGON, THURSDAY MAY 17, 1906

NO. 34

LOCAL NEWS

We failed to mention in last week's issue the return of Miss Bessie Thornberg, who has been attending college at Pendleton.

Rev. T. P. Graham preached a special sermon for the Odd Fellows, last Sunday morning. The local lodge attended in a body.

The Junior League gave an interesting program at the M. E. church last Sunday evening. Dr. Olmstead, of Portland, gave a very nice talk.

Geo. W. Turner and wife, of Portland, were called to Lexington yesterday by the serious illness of Mr. Turner's brother, Chas. D., of this city.

For Sale or trade—One 200 egg Chatham incubator, model 1905. Several three quarter B. P. Rock hens.

J. S. Baldwin, Lexington.

The Dalles Optimist is to be the name of a new newspaper soon to be established at The Dalles by Messrs. A. Bennett and R. G. Davenport. The Wheatfield welcomes Bro. Bennett back into the newspaper field.

The Wheatfield has just completed arrangements with the Oregon Journal whereby we are able to furnish the Oregon Daily Journal, including the Sunday issue, and The Wheatfield, one year $7. The Daily Journal and Wheatfield one year $5. The Semi-Weekly Journal and The Wheatfield one year $1.75.

The first political meeting of the campaign to be held in Lexington was held Tuesday afternoon by the democrats. Hon. Walter M. Pierce, candidate for joint Senator; A. D. Stillman, candidate for Circuit Judge and C. P. Strain, of Pendleton, all bright and brilliant speakers, gave their views of the present campaign from the democrat standpoint.

While grinding some tools Tuesday Karl Beach noticed what appeared to be a piece of new cloth under a pile of coal in the rear of W. G. Scott & Co's shop. Upon close examination he found an entire suit of clothes that were supposed to have been taken from the store of Leach Bros some time ago when the glass door of the hardware department was broken open.

BLACK HORSE

Harvey Parsell is much improved.

People up Black Horse are wishing it would rain.

Mrs. Jennie Barton spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Geo. Mead.

Miss Verdie Easterly and Mrs. Frank Beymer were Black Horse visitors last Friday.

Miss Etta Mead visited with Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Duran the past week, returning home Sunday. She reports a very pleasant visit.

Ask the boys up Black Horse if Sand Hollow water is better than the water at home. They sometimes go over there to get a drink.

Miss Ethel Stone, of Ione, was a pleasant visitor at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Valentine, the past few days returning home Monday.

Robt. VanHorn and Frank Moyer were Willow creek visitors Sunday.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our thanks to the kind friends who assisted us during the recent illness and death of our little son.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Wiles.

NOTICE

Bathing within the town limits, in Willow Creek, is strictly forbidden. If persisted in arrests will be made.

W. G. SCOTT,

32-36

Mayor.

TRESPASS NOTICE.

All persons are hereby warned against bathing in Willow creek within sight of my residence. Parties persisting in doing so will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

32-36

MRS. JANE PENLAND.

SENTENCE SERMONS

By Henry F. Cope.

Life without restraint is without righteousness.

A little great man can always be filled with vanity.

The funeral kind of religion is most properly dead.

Strength in public must have sources in private.

He cannot reach heaven who gets out of touch with earth.

Reverent reasoning may be the best kind of a revelation.

No man gets worthy riches unless he is willing to be poor.

You cannot separate society from sin by separating yourself from society.

The true man will find the bread of life even in the strife for bread.

He who stands for the right will not come to a standstill.

Ethics is good, and so is a motor; but it needs a dynamo.

You cannot learn to be a guide by studying a guide book.

You do not have to throw prudence to the winds in order to prove that you steer by principle.

People will believe in the virtues of your character without the evidence of its vinegar.

Trains of lies are made up by switching the truth.

Only the dead heart wants to be dead-headed to heaven.

It is not always the preacher who talks the most poetry who is doing most to make life a poem.

It is never safe to trust the man who carries his virtues on the tip of his tongue.

A man's vocabulary is measured by his dictionary, but his message depends on his heart.

If there were no old maids in the world there would be nobody for the married woman to envy.

CHAFF FROM THE STRAW STACK

Have you got the habit yet?

Come to think about it, have you paid the printer, yet?

Clean up your back yard first, then help the other fellow.

Ice cream and strawberries look good to us. In reminds us of the good old summer time.

The soda fountains are now doing business. It won't be long until the water wagon will be on deck.

A Paterson, N. J., bank president, George W. Murray, who was appointed trustee of an estate left by a man who died fifteen years ago, has just turned the property over to the heirs after having increased the value of it sevenfold. We nominate him for a place in the Hall of Fame.

It Is Dangerous to Neglect a Cold.

How often do we hear it remarked: "It's only a cold," and a few days later learn that the man is on his back with pneumonia. This is of such common occurrence that a cold, however slight, should not be disregarded. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia, and has gained its great popularity and extensive sale by its prompt cures of this most common ailment. It always cures and is pleasant to take. For sale by W. P. McMillan.
