LOCAL NEWS

Lexington grows steadily.

Of course this county went wet.

Dr. M. A. Leach, Dentist, Heppner Boost Lexington the best town in Morrow county.

Everyone should celebrate the Fourth at Heppner.

A new soda fountain has been installed in the Pastime.

W. E. Leach drives a handsome new rubber tired surrey.

Don't let your stomach rust just because Morrow county went wet.

It will not cost you a cent to list your land with John B. White & Co.

Dr. Higgs, Specialist, eye, ear, nose and throat. Heppner, Oregon.

If your land is for sale list it with John B. White & Co. They sell land.

Mail from the east arrived in Lexington last Tuesday the first for just one week.

Of course, if you have anything and don't want it, the printer will take it on subscription.

Get your stationery at the Wheatfield Printery and your business will never become stationary.

The berry pickers returned last Friday. The boys can tell you all about picking berries

Don't buy a gasoline Engine until you see The Stover, sold by the Lexington Electric Co.

It is said that every woman is looking for a partner in life, and that she prefers a silent one.

Many mean, wicked men admire a woman who wears a dress cut rainy day style at both end.

Two valuable horses belonging to P. M. Christenson have died within the past two weeks.

Mrs. E. D. McMillan visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Hodsdon Saturday and Sunday.

FOUND—The best place in Morrow county to get commercial printing is at The Wheatfield Printery.

Very few men can handle a hot lamp chimney and repeat the ten commandments at the same time.

Christenson Brothers moved the Black Horse school about one quarter mile nearer town the past week.

E. D. Leach and son, Robert, left Tuesday for Salem, Oregon, where they will make their future home.

Mrs. T. P. Graham, who underwent a successful operation in the Heppner hospital returned home Monday.

The Stars and Stripes played ball on the Lexington diamond last Monday.
The score was 12 to 13 in favor of the Stars.

The corner lot of the property recently purchased by S. E. Lee, has been selected as the site for the new creamery

The election is over, now get down to business and make Lexington a hummer. Pull all the new business possible to this town.

Harvest will commence next week in this county. P. M. Christenson informs us that he expects to start his header next Monday.

The meat market will move into the Lee building about the middle the month. This will make them a better room than the one they are now occupying.

David E. Leach went to Heppner last Thursday and an eye removed.
He returned home Saturday, and says he is feeling much better than for some time.

Miss Minnie Burgoyne remembered the Wheatfield family with two fine boquets from their yard. Flowers can be successfully grown here with a little attention.

A. J. Calkin, Lexington's new jeweler, moved up from Lone Monday last.
He has secured rooms in the Lee building. See his card in this issue of The Wheatfield.

JOB PRESS IS ALWAYS BUSY

I have just received, from Edward B. Grossman & Co., of Chicago, a choice line of spring samples, Ladies' and Misses' Suits, Silk Shirt Waist Suits, Wash Suits, Wash Skirts, Waists, Petticoats, Cloth and Silk Skirts, Jackets and Raincoats. Any one desiring anything in this line will do well to call and look over my samples at The Wheatfield Printery.
Mrs. S. A. Thomas.

A party from Arlington report a sad experience of two men, who went to the new town of Roosevelt, opposite Arlington. It seems as though they went to the new town for the purpose of investing in real estate and, becoming thirsty hid themselves to the town pump, which is operated by a wind mill, but failed to run on account of wind,, they started pumping by hand, after working the pump for nearly one hour and not being rewarded by enough water to quench their thirst, employed a guide to direct them across the sands to the Columbia river where they at last secured water enough to subdue the burning fires within. When they reached the river their tongues were beginning to thicken and their guide had considerable trouble in keeping them from drinking to much.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Trouble.

Mr. M. F. Borroughs, an old and well known resident of Bluffton, Ind., says: "I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as the very best remedy for bowel trouble.
I make this statement after having used the remedy in my family for several years. I am never without it." This remedy is almost sure to be needed before the summer is over. Why not buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency? For sale by W.
P. McMillan.
