THURSDAY JUNE 21, 1906.

WHAT LEXINGTON HAS

Lexington has a splendid system of water works, electric lighting system, two churches, good graded school, two general stores, flouring mill, bank, drug store, doctor, two blacksmith shops, meat market, jewelry store, pastime, agricultural implement house, barber shop, two saloons, two hotels, newspaper, lumber yard, two dray lines, photographer, real estate agency and a first class creamery in course of construction.

Lexington is situated nine miles from Heppner, the county seat of Morrow county, and is in the heart of the very best farming community in the county.

Morrow county has a population of about 6,500, land area 2,021 square miles, standing timber 147,000,000 feet, Climate, annual rainfall 15 inches, mean temperature 50 degrees, the soil is a heavy loam, plenty of good county roads.

WHAT LEXINGTON NEEDS

Lexington has enough business to support another good general store, and needs another warehouse, a station agent, a machine shop, express agent, and all the world to know that we have the finest and healthiest climate in Eastern Oregon, and that there is room for many more families.

FOR SALE—Cheap. Quarter section land in Sec. 21, Tp. 1 N., R. 25 E. Slope to north and east. All cultivatable land. Now under plow.
W. S. Wharton.

Down in Kentucky, in Taylor county, lives Matida Jane Ayers, 33 years of age, who has been married nine times and has buried eight husbands. Isn't it too bad this lady could get nine husbands while some we know cannot even secure one.

HOW TO BREAK UP A COLD

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's cough remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by W. P. McMillan.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the stockholders of the Lexington Creamery Association will be held on Saturday, June 30, 1906, in the city hall, in Lexington, Oregon, at 1 o'clock p. m.

UNKNOWN FRIENDS

There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the friends of this remedy. They have done much toward making it a household word by their personal recommendations to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale by W. P. McMillan.
