John B. White went to Heppner Monday. There seems to be an attraction in Heppner for our City Recorder.

Today is picnic day in Lexington and it is expected that a good crowd will be in town and a fine time is assured for all.

Remember that next Sunday is regular service day at the Methodist church, preaching by the pastor at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m.

Why are you a buzzard or a dove? Go and hear Rev. T. P. Graham's sermon at the Methodist church next Sunday evening and find out.

The Lexington band, one of the best musical organizations in this part of Eastern Oregon, has been engaged to furnish music at the Heppner celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Burchell were shopping in Lexington last Saturday. Mr. Burchell has some good looking grain but is too modest to say much about it.

C. C. Boon was in Lexington Monday. He said he understood that John White was at work on the Creamery building and came to town just to see him work.

Home grown new potatoes were on the market Monday, from the garden of Dr. R. C. Hunter. The Wheatfield family was remembered with a nice mess.

We failed to mention in last weeks issue that J. H. Helms and family, formerly of Blalock, had moved to Lexington. They are occupying one of the houses on the Penland property.

S. M. Green and brother, Ben, departed last Saturday for Angora, Colorado, where they will make their future home. The Wheatfield will keep them posted on Morrow county affairs.

Work on the creamery is being hurried along. The building will soon be enclosed and will be ready for the machinery on arrival. The main building is 24x32 feet with an L 12x20 feet. This creamery will have a capacity of 1000 pounds of butter per day.

Word was received in Lexington Saturday that it was the father of Mrs. Grimes instead of Mr. Grimes that was ill at Salem. E. D. Leach was operated on, Wednesday of last week, for appendicitis and cancer of the stomach. The report stated that he was in a critical condition.

The Wheatfield has just completed arrangements with the Oregon Journal whereby we are able to furnish the Oregon Daily Journal, including the Sunday issue, and The Wheatfield, one year $7. The Daily Journal and Wheatfield one year $5. The Semi-Weekly Journal and The Wheatfield one year $1.75.

The Very Best Remedy for Bowel Trouble.

Mr. M. F. Borroughs, an old and well known resident of Bluffton, Ind., says: "I regard Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as the very best remedy for bowel trouble. I make this statement after having used the remedy in my family for several years. I am never without it." This remedy is almost sure to be needed before the summer is over. Why not buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency? For sale by W. P. McMillan.
